One More Pier To Go

Stratton Super-Dam Progresses

'PLUG' ABOUT DUE. This view of the Stratton super-dam, taken from the West Virginia side of the river, shows how much progress has been made in erecting the piers of the multi-million-dollar project. When the final pier is erected between the coffer dams shown in the channel, the stream will be "plugged" and all river traffic then will be compelled to use the twin locks shown on the Ohio side. Boats have been using the locks because of midstream construction, however. The immense size of the piers is evident in comparison with the men shown on a scaffold in the lower picture. Huge roller gates to regulate the depth of the pool above the dam will be installed between the piers. Part of the overhead bridging is shown on some of the pier caps.

Hurry-Up Tag Put On Bills By Democrats

Hoping To Claim Credit In Coming Presidential Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders put a hurry-up tag today on major legislation for which they hope to claim credit in the presidential campaign.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas passed the word he wants some committee action this week on a bill to provide medical care for the elderly. A meeting of the Senate Finance Committee, which is considering the measure, was called for today.

Johnson already has on tap for Senate consideration a measure to raise the minimum wage from $1 to $1.25 an hour and to add from three to five million workers to those now covered by it.

The road to action on these politically potent proposals was cleared when Johnson, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, rallied party members Tuesday to scuttle an Eisenhower administration civil rights bill that threatened to provoke a time-killing filibuster.

The bill was shelved by a 54-28 vote that followed party lines.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois protested he had no political motives in mind in offering the measure. But Democrats denounced it as "political byplay" calculated to demonstrate their party is split on an issue rated highly important to strategically placed minority voters.

The measure would have prodded statutory authority for a presidential commission to supervise fair employment on government contracts and would have authorized federal aid for desegregating school districts.

Man, Woman Wait Hearing For Numbers

Baum St. Defendant Arrested 5 Months Ago In Similar Case

A city man, arrested for the second time in five months, and a West End woman, both charged with possession of "numbers" slips, are scheduled for hearings Thursday morning in Municipal Court.

Harry R. (Nig) Johnston, who listed his address as Baum St., and Peggy A. Stockdale of W. 8th St. were arrested Tuesday by Patrolman W. E. McDaniel on the possession charges, the third such arrest in a week.

Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin granted a continuance of their hearings until tomorrow morning at the request of Atty. Don E. Smith, who asked time to confer with his clients. Neither appeared in court this morning.

Patrolman McDaniel arrested Johnston on Baum St. and the woman on W. 8th St.

The charges allege they had in their possession "certain slips of paper representing recording of wagers on the "numbers' game."

Mauro Drops Candidacy To Judge's Post

Atty. Guy L. Mauro of Salem, considered a leading candidate for the Democratic nomination for a seat on the 7th District Court of Appeals, today asked Gov. Michael V. DiSalle to disregard his application for the post.

He also was being considered for the interim appointment to be made by Gov. DiSalle to serve until a successor to the late Judge Elmer T. Phillips is qualified.

Atty. Mauro was just one vote short of securing the party nomination at a district Democratic meeting last Friday night in Youngstown. With 15 votes cast, he received 7, with C. D. Lambros of Ashtabula polling 6. The remaining two votes were cast for Atty. Horace G. Tetlow, vice chairman of the Mahoning County Democratic executive committee.

Atty. Mauro said today he sent a telegram to Gov. DiSalle asking that he be disregarded for the appointment, and also reported that he would notify Jack Sulligan, Mahoning County party chairman, to withdraw his name from nomination.

Party chairmen and secretaries of the 13 counties in the 7th District will meet in Youngstown Saturday night to take a new vote on the nominees.

While Gov. DiSalle is to make the interim appointment until Judge Phillips' successor is qualified, he is expected to appoint whomever the district committee selects as its nominee for the unexpired term.

Atty. Mauro said today that "I don't feel in a position at this time to make a race for the election in November."

Want Their Backing Of Ticket

Kennedy, Johnson Seek To Woo Dixie Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas are trying to woo dissident Southern Democrats into supporting their ticket and avoid Republican inroads into the South.

Kennedy, as his party's presidential nominee, is working with local representatives in an effort to offset Dixie dissatisfaction with the Democratic platform's strong civil rights and labor planks.

The Massachusetts senator conferred Tuesday with William Battle, his Virginia campaign manager. He hopes to have a talk soon with Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va), who didn't work for the Democratic ticket when President Eisenhower carried Virginia in the last two presidential elections.

Byrd isn't saying what he will do this year. He is reported disturbed at promises made to labor in the platform.

Johnson, as the vice-presidential nominee, is working primarily on senators in an effort to win them to the cause of a national ticket. Moves under way in a half-dozen Southern states could omit the ticket from the ballot or free electors to vote as they choose.

Johnson has convinced some Southerners that they ought to support the ticket. Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) has agreed to go along. Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La) said he also will vote for Kennedy and Johnson, but that his party's state committee will decide what the organization will do.

Georgia's senators are expected to follow what the people say in a Sept. 14 primary about whether they want their electors to back Kennedy or be free to support another.

Fingerprints Seen Clue In Hoodlum Car Chase

A check has been started on fingerprints taken from a stolen car abandoned by two young hoodlums at Highland Colony early Tuesday following a 110-mile-an-hour chase from Calcutta, Police Chief Americo Radeschi said today.

Radeschi said police also are attempting to locate the owner of a 21-inch television set, apparently stolen by the pair, the chief said.

The 1955 car owned by James Powell, 1253 Hague Ave., was taken early yesterday from its parking place at W. 8th St. and Shadyside Ave.

The two suspects crashed a stop sign in Calcutta after spotting Deputy Sheriff Herman (Cy) Wellman and the high speed chase started over St. Clair Ave. It ended when the car skidded into a grassy strip alongside the entrance to Highland Colony after the two were unable to make a turn onto Jennings Ave.

The pair fled through Highland Colony and disappeared despite an intensive search through the North Side area by police and sheriff's deputies.

Uncertainty Hangs Over Congo Crisis

Dag's Return Waited Thursday; Premier's Threat Discounted

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Premier Patrice Lumumba's threats to go it alone raised new uncertainty and anxiety here today, but even the Congolese did not take seriously his threat to invade Katanga province.

The diplomatic community and U.N. officials awaited the return of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, probably sometime Thursday, to see how he deals with Lumumba in carrying out the U.N. Security Council's new mandate to replace the Belgian troops in Katanga with U.N troops.

Commanders of the 12,000-man U.N. force were confident a detachment would enter the dissident province soon, and without any shooting.

In Katanga, provincial Premier Moise Tshombe backed down on his threat to fight the U.N. troops and laid down conditions for them to enter the territory he has declared independent of Lumumba's central government.

Tshombe said the U.N. troops could only enter if none came from Communist or Communist-influenced countries and if the U.N. did not intervene in Katanga's internal affairs. Tshombe said his government retained the right to bar anyone from Lumumba's government from the province and that Katanga and U.N. troops would jointly guard all roads into the province.

The feeling in Elisabethville, the Katanga capital, was that Harmmarskjold would accept Tshombe's conditions in view of the latest Security Council resolution promising to keep hands off the internal dispute. But such acceptance was certain to bring new blasts from Lumumba.

Utility, Union Sign Contract

Mediation Awaited In Local Gas Strike

Agreement has been reached on a new contract between the Ohio Valley Gas Co., the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, and its Ironton sub-local No. 10-372, it was announced today by Harold Sneddon, East Liverpool division manager for the utility.

Replacing one that expired last October, the new contract continues existing wage rates for OCAW employes of Ohio Valley in the Ironton area.

However, it also assures members of the Ironton union they will receive the same cents per hour increase during the first year of any new contract agreed to at Steubenville, if an increase is granted to striking employes of Ohio Valley in the Jefferson County seat.

The Steubenville union, Local 12319, District 50, United Mine Workers, has been on strike against Ohio Valley since May 1 in a contract dispute, along with other locals in East Liverpool and Bellaire.

The new contract guarantees members of the Ironton union until July 1, 1961 "minimum parity," or equality, of wage rates and fringe benefits with those employes of the Charleston, W. Va. group

'To Respect All Cults'

Dorticos Eases Religious Crisis

HAVANA (AP) — President Osvaldo Dorticos early today assured the Cuban people Fidel Castro's regime will continue "respecting all religious cults" despite "provocations."

Speaking at a post-midnight labor rally, the president made no specific mention of the Roman Catholic hierarchy's pastoral letter last Sunday warning of the advance of communism in Cuba. Nor did he refer to the threat Tuesday by the archbishop coadjutor of Havana to close all Catholic churches on the island and suspend church services unless the government calls off pro-Castro demonstrators harassing anti-communist churchgoers.

But in an apparent reference to the pastoral letter, Dorticos said: "Those imputations will fall into a void and they will be applauded only by those who have interests that demand that applause."

The president accused "counter-revolutionaries and pro-imperialists" of "wielding religious sentiments against the Cuban revolution."

"They are useless maneuvers and will destroy themselves," Dorticos declared. "All this will have to be defeated. Our energies must be reserved for greater battles."

Dorticos spoke a few hours after a demonstration outside Havana Cathedral sent the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Evelio Diaz hurrying to the presidential palace with a warning that he would close all Catholic churches in Cuba today and declare the church "in silence"—the Vatican's term for the church's restricted operations in Communist countries—unless the government guarantees the safety of churchgoers.

Capital Reported Calm

Communications Blackout Cloaks Situation In Laos

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—A communications blackout today cloaked the situation in Laos, where a rebel army group seized the administrative capital Tuesday and proclaimed a neutralist policy for the isolated jungle kingdom repeatedly threatened by the Communists.

Vientiane, the administrative capital, at last word was reported calm after an initial outburst of shooting that killed two persons.

Pro-Western Premier Tiao Samsonith and his government were reported safe in Luang Prabang, the royal capital of King Sisavang Vathana, 100 miles north of Vientiane.

All airline flights to Vientiane were canceled, at least until Thursday. Telegraphic communication was suspended.

Vientiane radio has given no news broadcasts since an initial outburst of rebel communiques Tuesday.

Diplomatic advices said there was no doubt the rebels were in firm control of Vientiane. Unconfirmed reports said they posted a guard around the airport and erected roadblocks in the city.

More Vital To Stay On Job, He Says

Claims There's No Sign Of Economic Setback For Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today it is a little bit silly for Democrats to contend it would take many weeks to enact the legislative program he has proposed.

Eisenhower told his first news conference since July 6 that he thinks it is more important to the country for Congress to stay on the job and pass legislation than to go home and campaign.

One cannot simply say, Eisenhower continued, that politicking is more important than the nation's business.

In a wide-ranging discussion of domestic and foreign issues, the President said among other things there are no signs now of any economic recession or depression ahead for the country.

In the international field, the President said he had given no thought to having any personal conference with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev if the latter comes to this country for the United Nations disarmament conference or the U.N. General Assembly session.

Eisenhower said, however, that if he concluded any useful purpose could be served he would not hesitate to meet with the Soviet Premier.

Khrushchev hinted in an interview published in Pravda, the Soviet Communist newspaper, Tuesday that he might visit the U.N.

In the domestic field, Eisenhower said that when he invites congressional members of both parties to sit down with him soon he has no intention of lecturing them on how they should carry out their duties.

He said he would explain the international situation as he sees it and report on some changes he has made in his own program.

Eisenhower struck back at Democratic criticism of his defense program and the 21-point legislative proposals he sent the Senate when it reconvened Monday.

Specifically, Eisenhower said that he has not frozen 621 million dollars in defense funds voted by Congress as charged by Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee and Senate party leader.

Couple At Wellsville Injured In Road Crash

A Wellsville couple is hospitalized today with injuries received when their auto crashed into an embankment on a curve of the Route 30 Chester Hill Tuesday night.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said William Russell, 40, of 1907 Nevada St., was coming down the hill when he lost control and veered into an embankment at Newell's Bend.

His wife, Mrs. Dolores Russell, 44, suffered a lacerated leg and possible chest injuries in the mishap at 11:12 p. m. and is in "fairly good" condition today in City Hospital.

Russell is in "good" condition with a small laceration of the left eye and possible injuries of the leg and chest.

The sheriff's office in New Cumberland reported that Russell's 1953 Plymouth was demolished. The accident is still under investigation, deputies said.

dicted the Democrats will be sorry for their action in killing the measure.

Scott, one of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's top advisers, said the Democratic platform had "promised everything this side of paradise" but that Senate Democrats had washed out this pledge.

Keating viewed the use of a motion to table (kill)—which cuts off debate—as a part of grand design of the Democrats to use "their two-thirds majority to run roughshod over the minority," ignore Eisenhower's legislative proposals and enact their own program.

But Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee, called the Republican move "eleventh-hour politics."

"The intention of the Republicans today was to use civil rights legislation to block enactment of bills for federal aid to education, housing, medical assistance to the aged and the lifting of the minimum wage," Kennedy said.

Warriors Sign Wilt

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, who last March said he was through with professional basketball, today signed a new three-year contract with the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association.

Ex-Chester Man Dies In Plane Crash

Herman Edwin Edwards, 76, of Wheeling, a former Chester resident, was killed Tuesday when his light plane crashed, near Marietta while a heavy rainstorm was lashing the area.

The single-motored plane fell in a densely wooded area just north of Pinehurst on Route 50-A, some six miles out of Marietta.

Mr. Edwards, who learned to fly when 68, kept his plane at the Alderman Airport, west of St. Clairsville. He took off at 5:30 p. m. and was to pick up a pilot friend, J. R. Headley Jr., at Glen Dale, near Moundsville. Headley was to have checked the compass on the plane as it had not been working properly.

Federal Aviation Agency authorities said Mr. Edwards was about 90 degrees and nearly 100 miles off-course when he crashed.

Guy Alderman, airport operator, warned Mr. Edwards before the takeoff that thunderstorms were active to the south.

Mr. Edwards learned to fly at the St. Clairsville field and after he received his license he purchased an airplane. Two years ago, he made a cross-country trip to California in a plane similar to the one that crashed. He moved to Florida but returned to Wheeling last spring and bought the plane in which he met his death.

FAA inspectors were due at the crash scene today to try to determine the cause of the accident.

He left Chester about 1935 to make his home in Wheeling and was a huckster until he retired. While at Chester, he was employed at the former American Sheet & Tin Plate Co. He was a member of St. James Lutheran Church at Wheeling.

He leaves two sons, Fred Edwards of Huntington, Calif., and Richard Edwards of Huntington, W. Va.; a daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Herzog, who resides with her mother, Mrs. Verna Edwards of Newell, and four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the East Liverpool Arner Home for Funerals by the Rev. Charles Kampmeyer, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Burial will be in Locust Hill Cemetery at Chester.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday afternoon and evening.

charge, drawing a fine of $350 and costs and a suspended 30-day jail term. At that time, Johnston's address was listed as 1102 Chestnut St.

Police also recalled that Johnston was arrested about two years ago for possession of obscene literature.

Yesterday's arrests bring to four the number made by police so far this year for possession of the "numbers" slips.

Benton Jamison, arrested in March with Johnston, also was fined $350 and costs by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

McDaniel arrested James Ray Smith, 207 Locust Alley, last Wednesday on Walnut St. on a similar charge.

Smith was fined $250 and costs and sentenced to 6 months in jail yesterday when he pleaded guilty before Acting Judge Tobin. However, $100 of the fine and the jail term were suspended pending good behavior.

6 Killed In Crash

VAN WERT, Ohio (AP) — Six persons have died as a result of a collision of a car and a tractor-trailer about 10 miles east of Van Wert Tuesday. A seventh person is hospitalized.

Gas Strike

companies of the Columbiana Gas System represented by locals of OCAW.

Ohio Valley is a subsidiary of the Columbiana Gas System, Inc. Thus, if a wage increase is granted at Charleston, that exceeds the amount of a wage increase at Steubenville, or "vice versa," the greater cents-per-hour increase will be extended members of the Ironton union, Sneddon said. Whatever fringe benefits are extended to OCAW unions at Charleston will also be given to the Ironton unions, he added.

Meanwhile, there has been no word from federal mediators who were to attempt to arrange for further negotiations for new contracts between Ohio Valley and striking maintenance workers in East Liverpool, Steubenville and Bellaire. The strike is 102 days old today.

Strikers To Decide On School Checkup

Striking employes of the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. in Western Pennsylvania will meet Thursday in New Brighton to decide on whether to provide inspectors for checking gas installations in schools, churches and hospitals served by the utility.

A delegation of the Independent Gas Workers Union conferred Tuesday at Harrisburg with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, which declared an emergency exists because there has been insufficient inspection of gas lines since the strike began May 1.

A large group of municipal officials from towns in Beaver County and vicinity also met with the attorney general and PUC spokesmen to seek means of bringing the firm and union together. The delegation claimed dangerous conditions exist along the utility's gas lines.

The union agreement with the firm provides workers to be supplied at time-and-a-half in the event of emergencies during a strike.

Potato Field Day Set

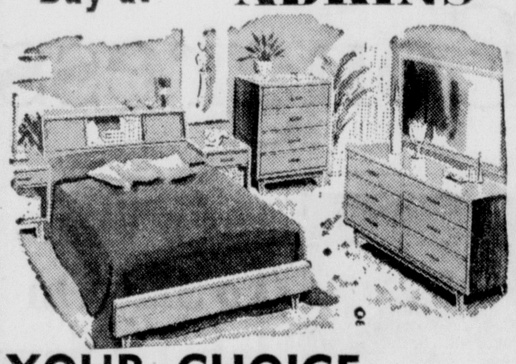

LISBON — The Eastern Ohio Potato Field Day will be held Tuesday at the Swartz Farm near Kent in Portage County, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture. The program attracts many potato growers from Northeastern Ohio and some Columbiana County growers expect to attend. There will be demonstrations and talks.

Bidding Due In Autumn For New School

Bids will be received this fall for construction of a new junior-senior high school to be located across the highway from the Ray W. Snyder School near Industry, the Western Beaver County Board of Education reported.

The proposed structure will be designed to accommodate 713 students. The secondary students now are sent to Midland and Beaver High Schools on a tuition basis.

Frank A. Meredith, supervising principal, said a county-operated special education class will be operated in the Ohio View School next term as the first class of its kind in the district.

The Snyder school, a new plant in the system, will be dedicated Aug. 18 at 8 p. m. prior to its opening for the school term this fall.

Secretary of the Western Beaver system this year is Mrs. Evelyn Perine. Miss Patricia Carothers is clerk and Miss Dorothy Brdar is school nurse.

Teacher and operating personnel assignments this year for buildings in the Western Beaver County system are:

Ray W. Snyder School — Mrs. Faye Laing, first grade; Miss Carolyn Csiszar, second; Mrs. Bonita Reed, third; Mrs. Martha Baker, fourth; Mrs. Georgeanna Scanlon, fifth; Donald Bradshaw, sixth.

Mrs. Marion Hyte, seventh and eighth, reading; Mrs. Frances Young, geography; Mrs. Sabina Walsh, English; Jay Young, arithmetic; John Hineman, history, Chester Bonner, science; Max A. Neville, janitor, and Mrs. Hazel Griffith, Mrs. Marie McCombs and Mrs. Helen Jonas, cafeteria workers.

Fairview School — Mrs. Genevieve Hockenberry, first; Mrs. Elizabeth Sainovich, first and second; Mrs. Alice Simmons, second; Mrs. Winifred Zahn and Mrs. Ruth Reynolds, third; Mrs. Florence Pfeifer and Miss Judy Kaye, fourth; Mrs. Elizabeth Bissell, fifth and sixth, and Clifford Wilds, sixth; Richard Gailey, janitor, and Mrs. Willa Gianviato, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell and Mrs. Helen Sullivan, cafeteria workers. One teacher is to be hired for the fifth grade.

Industry School — Mrs. Mary Ewing, first and second; Mrs. Ruth Gifford, third and fourth; Ohio View School — Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson, first; Mrs. Jean Ketterer, second; Mrs. Elizabeth Collins, third; Mrs. Minnie Miller, fourth; Mrs. Melva Reader, fifth, and Charles Smith, sixth.

George Shorak is janitor for Industry and Ohio View buildings.

Vets Reminded Of School Policy

A. G. Bille, VA contact officer, said it is not too soon to think about returning to school this fall — if "you are one of those Korea veterans who has had an unavoidable interruption of schooling."

Liberalized conditions for resuming education are now established by the Veterans Administration, if a veteran dropped out of school under the Korean G.I. Bill for more than a year and, while out, the three-years-from-discharge deadline for starting G.I. training had passed.

The liberalized conditions are—1.—If illness or death in the veteran's immediate family forced him to drop out of school; 2.—If he had to discontinue training because of unavoidable developments in a job, and 3.—If financial obligations forced him to leave school to get a job.

In all cases he must be able to prove the interruption in training was beyond his control. If he's not sure whether VA's changed ruling applies, he should consult with Bille, contact representative-in-charge, Veterans Administration, 227 N. 5th St., Steubenville.

Fingers Are Crossed

Businessmen, Managers Wait Traditional Upturn

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen—and the money managers—are laying plans for the traditional upturn after Labor Day—but this time with fingers crossed.

They're getting set for an increase in buying demand—but that depends on how consumers feel and also on how businessmen themselves feel about the outlook for fall.

The Federal Reserve Board will make more bank credit available by Labor Day.

Usually more credit is sought in the fall to finance retail preparations for back-to-school and Christmas business, and to finance the progress of crops from the fields and orchards to the grocery shelves.

Merchants expect big things from the back to school business.

The advance guard of the war babies is crowding colleges. The first of the big postwar baby crop will be entering high schools. Those born in 1954, when the birth rate was high, will be facing first-grade teachers.

As any parent knows outfitting children grows more expensive at each stage of education.

The food business stoutly predicts steadily increasing consumption and spending for food. And the increased processing and selling should call for more credit.

The auto industry is starting to produce its 1961 models. Steel, rubber, glass and other suppliers hope for more business soon. But the vogue for compact cars, using less materials, will cut into demand of these primary industries.

This has kept new orders for steel lower than first hoped. But the industry is now looking for October to be its biggest month, when new car production will be in full swing.

After that it's up to the car buyers.

Consumers have kept their spending in general at a high rate.

What the consumer may do this fall, however, worries some. They cite the nervous stock market, the squeeze on business profits, layoffs here and there, and stubborn unemployment totals as offering a threat to continued strong confidence on the part of the buying and borrowing public.

Former City Man Given Award By Cancer Institute

A former city man has been named the recipient of a post-doctorate award given by the National Cancer Institute.

Dr. David L. Kinsey of Columbus, son of Mrs. Collin F. Kinsey of Smithfield St., received one of the three awards given by the Cancer Institute in the U. S. for 1960-61.

The announcement was made by Dr. R. G. Meader, who is in charge of chief research at Grant's Branch of the National Cancer Institute.

Dr. Kinsey is senior resident surgeon at Ohio State University and is specializing in cancer surgery. He also holds the Franklin County Fellowship given by the American Cancer Society.

He was graduated in 1947 from East Liverpool High School and in 1955 from the College of Medicine of OSU in Columbus.

Farm Equipment Due On Display At Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Thirty five farm equipment dealers will display their wares in exhibits at the 1960 Ohio State Fair Aug. 26-Sept. 2. International Harvester Co. will have the biggest display with more than 30 pieces of equipment in a 7,500 square foot area.

Among items on display will be fertilizer spreaders, grain storage and handling equipment, milking equipment, seed and grain cleaning equipment and livestock waterers and feeders. Other products include bulk feed tanks and livestock supplies.

Killed In Collision

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Miss Shirley A. Adams, 18, of Trenton was killed Tuesday as her automobile crashed into a heavy grain truck on rain-covered U.S. 127 near here. The truck toppled over on Miss Adams' car and she was crushed in the wreckage. The young woman was a student nurse at Mercy Hospital here.

Atlas Is Fired Successfully; 3 More Lined Up

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Air Force has fired its Atlas missile over a 7,000-mile course and has taken over three more operational launching positions for the big intercontinental range missile.

The Atlas was launched Tuesday in another demonstration o fthe rocket's accuracy and range versatility. The target was between the normal Atlas range of 6,325 miles and the record 9,000 miles covered by one of the missiles last May.

The test, termed successful by officials, was one of several planned over various ranges. Another Atlas is being groomed for an 8,000-mile flight. Scientists also want to check the performance of the missile's nose cone, which is subjected to varied re-entry conditions over different ranges.

Strategic Air Command headquarters in Omaha announced three Atlas launching facilities at Warren Air Force Base, Wyo., have been turned over to SAC's 564th Missile Squadron.

Killed By Bulldozer

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP)—Frank E. Good, 47, a Chillicothe logging operator, was killed Monday when he was knocked off his bulldozer and the blade passed over him. Deputy Sheriff Raymond Scowden said Good was logging on a wooded farm about six miles east of Waverly when something—possibly a tree limb—struck him and knocked him off the rear-moving bulldozer.

Innsbruck is a historic university city in Austria. It was occupied by Italian troops in 1918.

Linda Urie Becomes Bride Of Richard J. Glendening

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Glendening are residing in a newly-furnished apartment on Carolina Ave., Chester, following their marriage July 30 at 4:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of Wellsville.

The bride was Miss Linda Kay Urie, daughter of Mrs. Mildred L. Urie of Oakmont and Harold C. Urie of Louisiana Ave., Chester, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Glendening of Glenmoor.

The Rev. Arden R. Beck, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar of palms, ferns and bouquets of white flowers and seven-branch candelabra.

Miss Esther F. Swift presented a half-hour of wedding music at the organ. Mrs. Thomas Miller sang "Because," "Through the Years" and "O, Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by D. Norman Eckfield of Salem and wore a floor-length gown of white lace and nylon net. The fitted bodice was styled with a Sabrina neckline and shirred, cap sleeves. Seed pearls and sequins highlighted the lace on the bodice and bouffant skirt.

Her fingertip veil of nylon illusion was gathered to a pearl and lace double crown. She wore pearl earrings, the gift of the bridegroom, and elbow-length, pointed lace mitts.

She carried a white Bible, the gift of her grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Urie. It was topped with an arrangement of white orchids and satin streamers. She also carried the white handkerchief her grandmother, Mrs. Lottie Bashaw, carried when she was married. She observed the traditions, including the sixpence in her shoe.

Miss Judith Bowersock was maid of honor and wore a ballerina-length gown of turquoise chiffon trimmed with lace and satin. Her matching Dior bow held a theater veil and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations, tied with matching streamers.

Miss Susan Louise Urie, sister of the bride, Miss Nancy Entrikin and Miss Norma Walker were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina-length gowns of coral chiffon trimmed in lace and satin. Their matching Dior bows also held theater veils and they carried Colonial bouquets of white carnations with streamers to match their gowns.

Jack Hannen of Mentor, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were James Glendening, brother of the bridegroom, Robert Pugh, his cousin, and David Weldon and Richard Durbin.

MRS. R. J. GLENDENING

Her Nuptials Held On July 30.

The mother of the bride chose a blue lace dress and the bridegroom's mother was attired in pink lace. White accessories and white orchid corsages complimented their costumes.

A reception for 100 followed in the social rooms. A three-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple, centered the table decorated with baby breath and lighted tapers.

Mrs. Eckfield presided at the buffet table. Aides were Mrs. Clara Michaels, Mrs. Virginia Lewis, Mrs. George Brown, Miss Kathryn Johnson, Mrs. Mary A. Rahter, Mrs. Eva Vermillion and Mrs. Sara Leiper.

Another reception followed at the home of the bride. Miss Helen Bibbee presided at the buffet table, which was highlighted with a centerpiece of white carnations and lilies. Aides were Mrs. Edith Hilditch, Mrs. Elizabeth Holden and Miss Nancy Holden.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Beaver Local High School. Her husband was graduated in 1959 and is employed at Loblaws, Inc.

Out-of-town guests were from Mentor-on-the-Lake, Wheeling and Pittsburgh.

The rehearsal party was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Mrs. Glendening was assisted by Mrs. Roy Pugh and Mrs. Robert Pugh.

Bible Class At Newell Will Stage Corn Roast

The John Wesley Bible Class of the Newell Methodist Church will hold its annual corn roast Thursday at 6 p. m. in the upper picnic area of Tomlinson Run State Park.

Bob Evans, president, said families and friends are invited. Members may be contacted for transportation.

Glenn Koping will be food committee chairman. In charge of entertainment will be Ray Scott, Delmer Anderson, John Greubert, Lewis Silliman, Harry Skeeles, Junior Williams and John Johnson.

Mislaid His License

SENECA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)— Police said Louis Phillips, 50, had been driving for 30 years without a license. When they halted his car Monday on a routine check and asked to see his license, Phillips told them he mislaid it in 1930 and just never got around to getting another one.

Former Irondale Couple's Daughter Is Bride At Toledo

Following an English tradition, Miss Elizabeth G. Smart made her own bridal gown for her marriage to LaVon D. Brillhart Saturday evening at 6 o'clock in the Lutheran Church of Our Savior in Toledo.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Smart of Westmorland, England. He is former supply minister of the Irondale and Hammondsville Methodist Churches. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brillhart of Toledo. Dr. and Mrs. William S. Banfield of Irondale served as representatives for the bride's parents.

The Rev. Richard Smith, pastor, officiated for the double - ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with vases of white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert Morley Smart of Ontario, Canada, the bride wore a floor-length gown of embroidered lace trimmed with white satin ribbon. The fitted bodice was designed with a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves with a V-back adding interest. The bouffant skirt featured a pouf which extended into a mere hint of a fluted train.

Her elbow-length veil of imported silk illusion was held in place by a coronet. She wore a pearl and diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of orchids and trailing ivy with satin streamers.

Mrs. Richard Heckman of Toledo was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Diane Durby of Toledo and Miss Barbara Banfield of Irondale.

They wore identical dresses of mint green organza over taffeta. Their coronets held circular veils of matching nylon net. Daisies and ivy arranged in pom-pon effect were tied to their wrists with satin ribbon.

Richard Dix of Toledo was best man. Norman Davis and Jerry Davis, both of Toledo and uncles of the bridegroom, were ushers.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a beige embroidered silk dress with matching accessories and pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Banfield wore a blue lace over taffeta dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart rosebuds.

A reception for 250 was held at Blaines Alexis Hall of Toledo with Dr. and Mrs. Banfield presiding.

Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Banfield and family of Highland Colony also attended. Other out-of-town guests were from Wellsville, Bergholz, Irondale, Wauseon, Alliance, Cleveland, Lansing, Mich., and Ontario.

Following a honeymoon in the lake district, the newlyweds will reside in Toledo.

The bridegroom's parents entertained with a lawn party preceding the wedding. Dr. and Mrs. William S. Banfield entertained for the rehearsal dinner in the Toledo Room of the Commodore Perry Hotel.

The newlyweds are teachers in special education at the Lotts Private School for Handicapped Children in Toledo.

Rotarians Hear Attorney

Law Governing Intestate Death Discussed For Club

An illustrated discussion of Ohio law concerning an intestate death was presented by Atty. Lawrence W. Smith Jr. to fellow members of the Rotary Club Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

With use of a chalkboard, Atty. Smith explained the 10 different sections of the state code regarding the descent and distribution of property owned by a person who dies without leaving a will.

The Ohio statute declares that "When a person dies intestate, having title or right to any personal property or to any real estate or inheritance in this state, such personal property shall be distributed and such real estate shall descend and pass in parcenary" (joint heirship) except as otherwise provided...."

Atty. Smith outlined various parts of the code, dealing with the descent of an estate through survivors or relatives of the deceased. Summarized, they provide that:

If there is no surviving spouse, the items go to the children or their lineal descendants.

If there is a spouse and one child or its lineal descendants surviving, half goes to the spouse and half to the child or descendants.

If there is a spouse and more than one child or their lineal descendants surviving, one third goes to the spouse and the remainder to the children equally, or to the lineal descendants of any deceased child.

If there are no children or their lineal descendants, three-fourths goes to the surviving spouse and a fourth to the parents of the intestate equally, or to the surviving parent; if there are no surviving parents, then the whole goes to the surviving spouse.

If there is no spouse and no children or their lineal descendants, the parents of an intestate share equally or the surviving parent.

If there is no spouse, no children or their lineal descendants, and no parent surviving, the estate goes to the brothers and sisters or their lineal descendants.

If there are no brothers or sisters, one-half goes to the paternal grandparents and one half to the maternal grandparents, or survivors.

Other parts of the code concern the distribution of the estate to descendants of deceased grandparents on down to step-children. If there are no step-children or descendants, then it goes to the state under escheat.

Atty. Smith explained that personal property escheated to the state must be applied exclusively to the support of the common schools of the county while real estate when escheated must be sold with proceeds going to the state agricultural fund.

He also briefly discussed the phrase "except as otherwise provided by law" in the statute, dealing with distribution of property to illegitimate children, murderer of the intestate — which the law says will not benefit from the will, and death of the beneficiary within 30 days which reverts the inheritance back to the deceased intestate.

Atty. Smith was introduced by Dr. R. Jay Kinsey, vice president, who presided in the absence of George Hargraves, president. The club's annual picnic is set for Aug. 30. No luncheon meeting will be held that day.

Officers Induction Set For Kaycees

Plans were completed for the installation of officers Saturday at 8 p. m. when Carroll Council 509, Knights of Columbus, met Tuesday night in the K. of C. Hall.

The ceremony will be conducted in the hall with Joseph Fittante of East Palestine, district deputy, as the installing officer.

Open house will follow for members, wives and friends.

Arrangements were also completed for the "stag" picnic to be held Tuesday at 6 p. m. at Valley Park. The regular meeting of the council will not be held.

The semi-annual meeting of the Carroll Club is scheduled for Aug. 23, following a council meeting at 8 p. m.

Rest Camp For Migrant Workers Step Closer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A northwestern Ohio rest camp for the migrant workers who harvest vegetables and fruit appears to be a step closer.

Construction of such a camp will be recommended to the 1961 Legislature by a legislative study committee headed by Rep. Norman A. Fuerst, D-Cuyahoga.

Such a camp is proposed by the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation. It would operate between April 15 and Oct. 15. One of its purposes is to centralize welfare, health, education and other services presently scattered. There was no estimate of its cost.

It would include cooking and eating shelters, laundry and toilet facilities, parking and recreational areas.

Near-Record Number Cast

Alaska Still Counts Votes On Capital Move Proposal

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—A near-record number of votes cast in Tuesday's Alaska primary election were still being counted today and Juneau's future as the state capital was still in doubt.

An emotional campaign over the capital move proposal, initiative No. 1, coupled with generally fair weather, brought out an extremely heavy vote.

Whether it would surpass the record 50,343 votes cast in the 1958 general election, when Alaskans voted on whether to join the union as the 49th state, was unknown as the slow, tedious job of collecting ballots from isolated areas continued.

Southeastern Alaska, where Juneau is located, gave the proposal to move the capital a beating.

With 70 of 298 precincts counted, there were 2,987 votes for the capital move proposal and 8,854 votes against it.

But of the 70 precincts, 50 were in southeastern Alaska, where the vote on the proposal was 247 yes and 8,199 no.

Sen. E. L. Bartlett and Rep. Ralph J. Rivers, both Democrats, were having smooth sailing in their bids for re-election.

Bartlett, unopposed, had 5,008 votes with 52 precincts reported.

Lawrence Brayton, a Fairbanks surveyor, was trailing Lee L. McKinley, a Palmer dentist, 1,073 to 908 with 51 precincts counted, for the Republican nomination for Bartlett's seat.

With 51 precincts counted, Rivers had an overwhelming lead over his lone opponent for the Democratic nomination, Kenai hotelman David N. Boyer, 4,580 to 692.

In the Republican House race, Fairbanks newspaperman Jack Ryan had a large lead on his two opponents, William C. Haugaard, a Sitka lawyer, and R. L. Rettig, an Anchorage accountant.

With 51 precincts counted, it was 1,115 for Ryan, 539 for Rettig and 468 for Haugaard.

West Virginia Prison May Make Folding Chairs

MOUNDSVILLE (AP) — With a new tire recapping plant now in operation, Warden Donivon E. Adams has visions of manufacturing folding chairs at the State Penitentiary here.

"Don't forget," he wrote in the prison newspaper, "Penscope," that there are "at least 900 idle men on hand here at all times. By and large, the greatest majority of these desire to work."

Adams said officials of Joliet Prison in Illinois had sent him a sample wooden chair from their factory. He added:

"There would be a good market for this item, and such a program wouldn't require the expensive equipment that our recap plant needed.

"Since our Mountain State abounds in hardwoods, and the necessary raw materials, this idea appears to have great possibilities."

Japs Give Up Effort

Year's Longest List

92 Ohio Road Projects Up For Bids

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Highway Department opened contractors, bids on the year's longest list of road improvement projects Tuesday.

Ninety-two jobs were put up for bid for the contract letting session, the 14th of the year. Among them are:

Allen County—Widening Ohio 81 to 24 feet and resurfacing it for 8.2 miles from Lima west. Apparent low bidder: Churchill Construction Co. of Lima, $268,931. State estimate: $264,500.

Athens County — Three bridges for Ohio 356 to span Rockcamp Creek, Grass Run and Hewett Fork. Apparent low bidder: Engle Construction Co. of McArthur, $129,751. State estimate: $171,600.

Athens-Hocking—Widening U. S. 33 for 4.8 miles in Nelsonville and for .7 of a mile north of Ohio 595, and widening Ohio 216 from east of Nelsonville to Murray City. Apparent low bidder: F. H. Brewer Co. of Lancaster, $212,576. State Estimate: $217,200.

Butler County—Widening U. S. 127 for 4.8 miles from just above New Miami to a mile north of the Ohio 73 intersection, except in the village of Seven Mile. Apparent low bidder: Don Cisle Contractor, Inc., of Hamilton, $178,497. State estimate: $173,400.

Cuyahoga County — Widening the intersection of Ohio 237 and Front Street in Berea, resurfacing the adjacent portion of Front Street. Apparent low bidder Herkner Construction Co. of Cleveland, $78,023. State estimate: $83,300.

Knox County — Widening 4.2 miles of Ohio 13 between Mount Vernon and Fredericktown. Apparent low bidder: Mansfield Asphalt Paving Co. of Mansfield, $129,496. State estimate: $140,300

Lake County — Two culverts under Ohio 2 (relocated Blackbrook Road, the Ohio 2 freeway and ramps) and Ohio 44 ramps. Apparent low bidder: Midwest Construction Co. of Cleveland, $177,159. State estimate: $250,800.

Lorain County — Resurfacing Ohio 58 in Wellington. Apparent low bidder: Ohio Engineering Co. of Lorain, $12,177. State estimate: $17,700.

Trumbull County—Widening 1.3 miles of Ohio 46 and 169 in Niles. Apparent low bidder: City Asphalt & Paving Co. of Youngstown, $47,144. State estimate: $47,500.

Tuscarawas County — Widening U.S. 21 for 7½ miles between Newcomerstown and the Guernsey County line. Apparent low bidder: Hall & Barber, Inc., of Cambridge, $288,274. State estimate: $282,700.

Van Wert County—Widening 7.2 miles of Ohio 49 north of Willshire. Apparent low bidder: Union Quarries Co. of Scott, Ohio, $128,856. State estimate: $145,800.

Washington County — Widening 4½ miles of U.S. 59 - A east of Marietta. Apparent low bidder: Shelly & Sands, Inc., of Thornville, $126,263. State estimate: $131,200.

Another bid-opening is scheduled next Tuesday, with 72 projects advertised. The Aug. 9 and 16 openings are expected to clean up most of the widening and resurfacing and maintenance jobs for 1960.

Low Bid $149,329 For District Project

Edgar Spring, Inc., of New Philadelphia apparently was low bidder, $149,329, for the widening and blacktopping of 5 miles of Route 644 in Carroll and Columbiana Counties.

The improvement is planned in and near Salineville and Summitville and the bid exceeded the State Highway Department's estimate, when offers were opened at Columbus Tuesday.

Union Will Probe Vandalism Acts Against Gas Firm

CLEVELAND (AP) — Acts of vandalism against the strikebound East Ohio Gas Co. will be investigated by the striking Natural Gas Workers Union, officials of the union said Tuesday night.

John D. Nagle, president of the union, denied that the union was responsible for shutting off outside master valves in two Akron locations Tuesday, affecting 120 persons in apartment and government housing projects. Service was restored.

The vandalism was reported as Federal Mediator Gilbert J. Seldin summoned negotiators to a meeting at the Federal Building here Thursday afternoon.

There have been no negotiations since the strike of 2,800 gas company employes started at 12:01 a.m. Monday.

The union is seeking an increase of 12 cents an hour in a one-year contract. The company favors a two-year contract and a 10.13 cents-an-hour increase.

East Ohio says it is maintaining service to some 800,000 customers in northeastern Ohio. Some 800 administrative and supervisory employes are handling emergency calls, the firm said.

3 Victim Of Wreck

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Edward Donald Hopper, 39, of Catawba has become the third victim of a head-on collision July 28. He died Tuesday of injuries received when the station wagon he was driving collided with another vehicle on a county road northeast of here. He was the manager of a Pony League baseball team. Two members of the team died in the accident.

The United States is the foremost mineral-producing nation in the world. It yields each year more than one-third of the world total.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I repair chipped porcelain on my stove?

A. There are a number of porcelain glazes on the market for this purpose. The area to be fixed must be free of grease and dirt, and completely dry. Apply a thin coat of the glaze, wait 30 minutes, then apply another thin coat. Keep applying these thin coats until the damaged area is built up so that it is level with the surrounding surface. The trick is not to try to fill the chipped area with one single thick coat. Have denatured alcohol on hand for use in wiping off any surplus glaze.

Q. What can I do about rust stains on the fixtures in my kitchen sink?

A. Scour them with a paste made of equal parts of hydrogen peroxide and cream of tartar. Let this remain on about 15 minutes, then rinse off.

Q. How can I remove water from an ear?

A. Tip the head down toward the ground or floor on the affected - ear side, and jump up and down on the foot of the same side.

Grand Jury Will Hear Crime Unit's Testimony

CHARLESTON (AP) — For the first time since its creation the work of the West Virginia Crime Commission will get at least as far in the legal process as a grand jury.

Charles M. Walker, prosecuting attorney of Kanawha County, has announced that he will submit the transcript to testimony taken by the commission on Road Commission payroll practices in Clay County. It is to go before the Intermediate Court grand jury meeting Sept. 26 for determination if there was any false swearing.

Some of the Road Commission employes who appeared during the hearings this Monday and earlier changed their stories.

Walker made his announcement before seeing the transcript to judge whether the evidence was strong enough to warrant presentation to the grand jurors. He explained that he was carrying out an understanding arrived at early in the Clay County investigation with F. Dean Nichols, counsel for the commission.

Besides, he said, "where matters of public interest are concerned, even though I might not be convinced myself a crime was committed, I feel there should be grand jury consideration."

False swearing is a misdemeanor for which the penalty is one year in jail or a fine of $500, or both. Those convicted of it forfeit their right to hold positions of public trust, like political office.

The man in the center of the investigation, Orval Q. Schoonover, Clay County maintenance supervisor for the Road Commission, called it nothing but "a bunch of politics."

A State Police handwriting expert testified that endorsements on 13 payroll checks for $1,300 and made out to other employes were in Schoonover's handwriting. Nichols said, "Insofar as testimony before this commission is concerned, those 13 checks were forgeries."

Schoonover denied making any improper endorsements.

The possibility of false swearing is for consideration by grand jurors in Kanawha County because it was here that the hearings were held. Consideration of the possibility of forgery would have to be in the counties where the checks involved were cashed, Clay and Fayette. Nothing has been heard from them.

The Crime Commission itself has gone on to other things, but has refused to say what they are. It held a closed session yesterday. All that a spokesman would say afterward was "further directions of investigation it is making or will make and administrative matters" were discussed.

Hollow Rock Campers Await Missionary Program Friday

The Rev. Holland Rice, who has spent 23 years as a missionary in the Far East fields, will be among speakers at the Hollow Rock camp grounds Missionary Day program Friday.

In pre-Communist days he was missionary in Peking, China, and has been in charge of house-to-house Scripture campaigns in Japan. He is now the superintendent of the Formosa field of the Oriental Missionary Society.

The camp meeting supports 18 missionaries and national evangelists who work in 6 countries.

Dr. Andrew Gallman of Meridian, Miss., will preach tonight the 7:30 service and at the 10:30 a. m. service Thursday. Dr. J. Harold Loman of Salisbury, N. C. will preach at the 7:30 p. m. service tomorrow.

Musical features at the Tuesday night services included a selection by the Rev. Paul Brookes of Chester and another by Mrs. Helen Jean Smith. The camp chorus and male quartet sang and Prof. Marvin G. Dean, head of the Music Department of Taylor University, gave a selection.

The opening prayer was given by the Rev. Glenn Brunstetter, pastor of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church.

The speaker was the Rev. James (Jimmie) Lentz of Tennessee, radio evangelist of the World Gospel Mission.

It was announced that the principal young people's meeting usually held in the evening, is now being held in the afternoons at 2.

Hit-Run Storms Drench Big Part Of Eastern U.S.

By The Associated Press

Hit - and - run thunderstorms drenched much of the eastern half of the nation during the night.

One storm dumped 4.6 inches of rain on Cincinnati in a three-hour period. Lightning struck a downtown building. A factory roof caved in, apparently under the weight of accumulated rain.

Hundreds of basements were flooded. Traffic was snarled in flooded streets, but there were no reports of serious accidents.

Brief but heavy thundershowers also doused the Detroit and Chicago metropolitan areas. Thunderstorms ranged from northern Virginia into upper New York state.

Showers and thunderstorms also dampened a broad area of the south, from Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas eastward through Georgia and the Carolinas. Junction City, Tex., reported 1.67 inches of rain in six hours. Thunderstorms also produced generous showers over much of the normally dry southwest.

Cool weather prevailed from the northern plains into the northeast. Temperatures also dropped along the northern Pacific seaboard while inland areas of the west continued to be hot.

George Washington was inaugurated as the first president of the United States in 1789.

Chorus, Quartet To Sing Saturday At Pughtown Fair

The Barbershop Singing Society, the local chapter of SPEBSQSA, will present a program at the street fair of Pughtown volunteer firemen Saturday night at 9:30.

The "Colonials," international medalist quartet from the chapter, also will sing in the program with the chorus. Chorus members are to meet at the fire station at 9 p. m.

Plans for the activity were completed at a meeting of the chapter Monday night in Carpenters Hall.

An initiation ceremony was performed for Jerry Rose and William Thomas and membership certificates were presented by Dale Keddie, assisted by Dean Manning and Don Schussler. The chorus sang "You're as Welcome as the Flowers In May."

In other business conducted by Schussler, final plans were made for a family picnic Sunday at Lake Marwin. Swimming events will begin at 2 p. m., followed by badminton and horseshoes. A buffet dinner will be served at 6. Members are to bring sandwiches and personal table service.

Chapter members, along with 11 other area chapters, will attend a barbershop corn roast Wednesday night in Youngstown and a district show at Lakeside Aug. 20. William Brooks, director, conducted chorus rehearsal. Refreshments were served by Lee Persohn and Charles Hartenbach.

Henna leaves are claimed to be the oldest cosmetic in history. They were used in ancient Egypt and Asia for coloring the hair, nails and skin.

Elyria Must Solve Problems Resulting From U.S. Aid Cut

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It's up to the city of Elyria to solve the problems which have resulted in a cutoff of further federal aid for highways within the city limits, the Ohio Highway Department says.

G. A. Berry, first assistant highway director, said the problem stems from a direct entrance and exit to the highway provided a restaurant-motel on the east side of Ohio 57 in Elyria. A motel on the west side of the limited access route 57 has access only to a service road which eventually rejoins the main route.

The U. S. Bureau of Public Roads has refused further aid until the situation is cleared up.

Highway Director Everett S. Preston suggested, without amplification, that it might be possible for the city "to rectify any injustice which might result from closing the existing entrance and exit, which the Bureau of Public Roads has ordered."

He said the mayor of Elyria at the time the entrance-exit was built, J. Grant Keys (now state highway safety director), Consulted with the Ohio Highway Department, but that the department at the time was mistaken in saying that such an entrance-exit was permissible.

War Experience Leads To Job As Perfume Expert

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — Gilbert J. Hackforth - Jones developed his sense of smell as a chemical expert during the second world war. Now he invents fragrances for one of England's leading perfume manufacturers.

He was stationed at a chemical defense experimental station while serving in the Royal Engineers and was required to undergo smelling tests of various gases.

Intelligence and objectivity are the requisites for a perfumer, he says on a visit here. Chemical training and artistic interest and ability provide a suitable background, although he considers himself primarily as an artist.

Perfumes are not made by accident. A perfumer creates a fragrance in his mind, then attempts to produce it. This is no easy task.

"Any fine perfume will have at least 100 ingredients," Hackforth-Jones says.

The type of skin as well as the sort of person you are should guide the perfume you buy.

People with oily skins can wear much heavier perfumes. So can a person who can successfully wear exotic clothes and a lot of jewelry, he says.

He recommends that women choose two or three scents they personally like — "certainly two, a daytime fragrance and one for evening."

And perfume should not be overwhelming, he says. The best effect may be obtained by using a matching range of powder, toilet water or cologne, and perfume.

Most fragrances go together well so that the perfume in lipstick, face powders, soap and other cosmetics blends into the predominant fragrance of the perfume of the wearer.

However, he says, a strong perfume should not be put over an earlier application of a different strong perfume.

Mills Re-Elected Master Of Grange

Charles Mills of Jefferson St., Newell, was re-elected master of the Fairview Grange at a meeting Tuesday night at the Pughtown Grange Hall.

Others elected were C. C. Herron, overseer; Mrs. Rose Hukill, lecturer; Jay Minor, steward; Francis Berry, assistant steward; Mrs. Hilary Johnston, chaplain; Mrs. Helen McClain, treasurer.

Mrs. Robert Parkins, secretary; Oscar Stewart, gate keeper; Mrs. Charles Mills, Ceres; Mrs. Earl Pugh, Pomona; Mrs. Bertha Shaffer, Flora; Mrs. Shields Cullen, lady assistant steward, and Robert Parkins, executive committee for 3-years.

A contribution was authorized for the State Juvenile Camp. Lunch was served 30 by Mrs. Jennie Stewart and committee.

The annual wiener roast will be held at the next meeting Aug. 23.

Big Truck Advertises Its Safety Philosophy

XENIA, Ohio (AP)—A big trailer truck moving through here had this bit of traffic safety philosophy written in dust on its rear:

"The hurrier I go, the behinder I get."

From the German cuisine: fluffy meat balls cooked in boiling water and served with a thin gravy enlivened by lemon juice and capers.

Year's Longest List

92 Ohio Road Projects Up For Bids

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Highway Department opened contractors, bids on the year's longest list of road improvement projects Tuesday.

Ninety-two jobs were put up for bid for the contract letting session, the 14th of the year. Among them are:

Allen County—Widening Ohio 81 to 24 feet and resurfacing it for 8.2 miles from Lima west. Apparent low bidder: Churchill Construction Co. of Lima, $268,931. State estimate: $264,500.

Athens County — Three bridges for Ohio 356 to span Rockcamp Creek, Grass Run and Hewett Fork. Apparent low bidder: Engle Construction Co. of McArthur, $129,751. State estimate: $171,600.

Athens-Hocking—Widening U. S. 33 for 4.8 miles in Nelsonville and for .7 of a mile north of Ohio 595, and widening Ohio 216 from east of Nelsonville to Murray City. Apparent low bidder: F. H. Brewer Co. of Lancaster, $212,576. State Estimate: $217,200.

Butler County—Widening U. S. 127 for 4.8 miles from just above New Miami to a mile north of the Ohio 73 intersection, except in the village of Seven Mile. Apparent low bidder: Don Cisle Contractor, Inc., of Hamilton, $178,497. State estimate: $173,400.

Cuyahoga County — Widening the intersection of Ohio 237 and Front Street in Berea, resurfacing the adjacent portion of Front Street. Apparent low bidder Herkner Construction Co. of Cleveland, $78,023. State estimate: $83,300.

Knox County — Widening 4.2 miles of Ohio 13 between Mount Vernon and Fredericktown. Apparent low bidder: Mansfield Asphalt Paving Co. of Mansfield, $129,496. State estimate: $140,300.

Lake County — Two culverts under Ohio 2 (relocated Blackbrook Road, the Ohio 2 freeway and ramps) and Ohio 44 ramps. Apparent low bidder: Midwest Construction Co. of Cleveland, $177,159. State estimate: $250,800.

Lorain County — Resurfacing Ohio 58 in Wellington. Apparent low bidder: Ohio Engineering Co. of Lorain, $12,177. State estimate: $17,700.

Trumbull County—Widening 1.3 miles of Ohio 46 and 169 in Niles. Apparent low bidder: City Asphalt & Paving Co. of Youngstown, $47,144. State estimate: $47,500.

Tuscarawas County — Widening U.S. 21 for 7½ miles between Newcomerstown and the Guernsey County line. Apparent low bidder: Hall & Barber, inc., of Cambridge, $288,274. State estimate: $282,700.

Van Wert County—Widening 7.2 miles of Ohio 49 north of Willshire. Apparent low bidder: Union Quarries Co. of Scott, Ohio, $128,856. State estimate: $145,800.

Washington County — Widening 4½ miles of U.S. 59 - A east of Marietta. Apparent low bidder: Shelly & Sands, Inc., of Thornville, $126,263. State estimate: $131,200.

Another bid-opening is scheduled next Tuesday, with 72 projects advertised. The Aug. 9 and 16 openings are expected to clean up most of the widening and resurfacing and maintenance jobs for 1960.

Low Bid $149,329 For District Project

Edgar Spring, Inc., of New Philadelphia apparently was low bidder, $149,329, for the widening and blacktopping of 5 miles of Route 644 in Carroll and Columbiana Counties.

The improvement is planned in and near Salineville and Summitville and the bid exceeded the State Highway Department's estimate, when offers were opened at Columbus Tuesday.

Union Will Probe Vandalism Acts Against Gas Firm

CLEVELAND (AP) — Acts of vandalism against the strikebound East Ohio Gas Co. will be investigated by the striking Natural Gas Workers Union, officials of the union said Tuesday night.

John D. Nagle, president of the union, denied that the union was responsible for shutting off outside master valves in two Akron locations Tuesday, affecting 120 persons in apartment and government housing projects. Service was restored.

The vandalism was reported as Federal Mediator Gilbert J. Seldin summoned negotiators to a meeting at the Federal Building here Thursday afternoon.

There have been no negotiations since the strike of 2,800 gas company employes started at 12:01 a.m. Monday.

The union is seeking an increase of 12 cents an hour in a one-year contract. The company favors a two-year contract and a 10.13 cents-an-hour increase.

East Ohio says it is maintaining service to some 800,000 customers in northeastern Ohio. Some 800 administrative and supervisory employes are handling emergency calls, the firm said.

3 Victim Of Wreck

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Edward Donald Hopper, 39, of Catawba has become the third victim of a head-on collision July 28. He died Tuesday of injuries received when the station wagon he was driving collided with another vehicle on a county road northeast of here. He was the manager of a Pony League baseball team. Two members of the team died in the accident.

The United States is the foremost mineral-producing nation in the world. It yields each year more than one-third of the world total.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I repair chipped porcelain on my stove?

A. There are a number of porcelain glazes on the market for this purpose. The area to be fixed must be free of grease and dirt, and completely dry. Apply a thin coat of the glaze, wait 30 minutes, then apply another thin coat. Keep applying these thin coats until the damaged area is built up so that it is level with the surrounding surface. The trick is not to try to fill the chipped area with one single thick coat. Have denatured alcohol on hand for use in wiping off any surplus glaze.

Q. What can I do about rust stains on the fixtures in my kitchen sink?

A. Scour them with a paste made of equal parts of hydrogen peroxide and cream of tartar. Let this remain on about 15 minutes, then rinse off.

Q. How can I remove water from an ear?

A. Tip the head down toward the ground or floor on the affected - ear side, and jump up and down on the foot of the same side.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

The Way Of The Independent

John Crosby is on vacation. During his absence his column is being conducted by guest writers. Today's guest columnist is Bennet H. Korn, executive vice president in charge of television for Metropolitan Broadcasting Corp.)

By BENNET H. KORN

Talk in television circles these days is much on public affairs programming which is high-minded, but too often low-rated.

But we here at WNEW-TV have discovered a strange and wondrous thing. We've learned that the public, in great number, is eager to watch informative programming if it is provocative.

In New York, with seven stations competing for audience attention, an independent hardly can match the networks in the amount of money it spends on specials. Our victories must be achieved by inventiveness, point of view, and the courage to present ideas which networks hesitate to undertake.

That we have major impact on New York is illustrated by the ratings of some of our recent special telecasts.

"BULLFIGHT," a total primer by Carlos Montalban on the art and spectacle so popular with Spanish-speaking peoples, topped all its competition.

There were some complaints, but the over-all reaction from the public and critics was that it was one of the finest programs of the year.

We were delighted when "Nervous Tension," a straightforward medical report on a problem common to most everyone in modern life, also led in its time position. With no plot, nor the great drama of our previous medical show (the heart operation of Mable Chin), it was rewarding to find so many people concerned with factual medical details.

Our most recent project, "Remember Us," the story of Hitler's concentration camps, narrated by Quentin Reynolds and depicting man's inhumanity to man, had a shattering effect on the public.

THE PROGRAM POLICY of an independent television station can develop along one of three ways:

First, like the local neighborhood theater, it can specialize in grinding out features. This path gives it a peaceful television coexistence and a successful canned mediocrity.

Second, it can seek the highly segmented audience which simply adores a welter of words. These verbal pyrotechnics shoot for the moon, but often as not fizzle in the airwaves. This path of glory may lead to the poorhouse.

The third choice — ours — is to fight the network stations on their own terms. It aims at serving the community's total entertainment and information needs.

Luxuries follow essentials, and first we must make ends meet. Channel 5 in New York makes its living in a numbers game — the numbers being the audience it attracts to its varied programs.

LIKE ITS colleagues, WNEW-TV broadcasts its share of adventure programs, detective mysteries, syndicated films, spots and movies, and in any four-week period all of metropolitan New York tunes to us at one time or another. This is basic.

However, we at Metropolitan Broadcasting take pride in the unusual projects we can support because of our solid economic base. As an example, recently gathered in our studios were such diverse personalities as Helen Hayes, James Farley, Al Capp, Sid Caesar, Cardinal Spellman, Buddy Hackett, Norman Thomas, Milt Caniff and Eleanor Roosevelt — they were here so that each in his own way could urge citizens to exercise their precious privilege to vote.

Each spoke from one to three minutes. This campaign to get out the vote starts on our Channel 5 beginning Labor Day.

THE STRENGTH of an independent is in its great flexibility.

A peek at the inner life of a local station such as ours will show that on short notice we pre-empt programs for such events as the Humphrey-Kennedy debate, or the United Nations sessions on Cuba, the Congo and the Russian spy plane charges.

In developing its documentary on "The Life of Winston Churchill" as seen through the eyes of his compeers and illustrated with film clips, we have completed negotiations with Quentin Reynolds to do the commentary.

Our next medical program, the first in a series called "A Question of Life," is conceived specifically to save lives. It deals with heart disease, and specialists give detailed advice on how to stay alive.

"A VALENTINE to the Gunman," a satirical view of the genus Gangster Americanus, with a script by Ben Hecht, is in production.

All of these programs produced at WNEW-TV will be seen on Metropolitan Broadcasting's other stations — WTTG-TV, Washington, D.C.; WTVH, Peoria, Ill., and KOVR-TV, Sacramento, Calif., and made available for syndication.

The other day the advertising director of a big company which sponsors many network shows overheard the end of a conversation I was having with my program manager.

"What production budget do you plan for the show you're talking about?" he inquired.

When I mentioned it might be "from $3,000 to $5,000," he smiled and remarked, "That's about the size of the mimeograph budget of one of our shows."

Such is the life of an independent.

20 Of West Virginia School Budgets Okayed

CHARLESTON (AP) — Twenty-one county school budgets have been approved so far by the Board of School Finance and State Tax Department for the new fiscal year.

The budgets for the remaining 34 counties are still being worked on.

Included in the approved budgets was that for Logan County, at $5,074,634 down $4,348 from 1959-60.

Firemen Swing Brooms Battling Bats In Bedroom

Firemen have bats — not in the belfry — but in their bedroom, at Central Station.

Two bats were killed Tuesday night after invading the dormitory on the second floor after firemen had turned off the lights for the night.

"We're not 'batty' but it might have looked that way," one firemen recounted in relating the chase with the swinging brooms. The bats generally leave when the lights are turned on or take refuge in a darkened area.

A bat one night invaded a room where a couple of intrepid firemen were watching a television program. "They left first," a buddy laughed.

But it's no laughing matter, firemen say, to see bats winging through the bedroom.

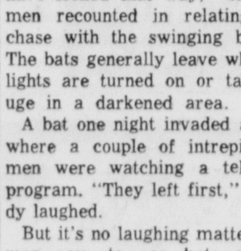

How do they get into the station? Easily, it's been hotter than and there are no screens for the windows.

Showdown Approached

Antarctic Treaty Passage Seen Doubtful In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ratification of the antarctic treaty with the Soviet Union and 10 other nations was in doubt today as the Senate approached a showdown vote.

The opposition, led by Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif) counted on a speech by Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) Tuesday night, and a two-hour address by Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga) today, to tip the scales in their favor.

But Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told a reporter he was hopeful the necessary two-thirds votes could be mustered to assure its approval. Another supporter, Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), assistant majority leader, said he was not so sure.

All agreed "it will be very close."

Sen. Byrd is the brother of the late Adm. Richard E. Byrd, whose pioneering explorations of the Antarctic provided the basis of earlier unofficial U.S. claims to antarctic territory. The treaty recognizes no such claims by any country, but opponents object it would give formal recognition to the Soviet Union's presence in Antarctica.

The treaty, Byrd said, "is bad for the United States and good for Russia."

But Fulbright told the Senate that the treaty not only would dedicate the antarctic to peaceful scientific exploration on a cooperative basis but would tie the Soviet Union for the first time to the acceptance of rigid international inspection to insure compliance with provisions of the treaty.

These include prohibition of military bases, as well as nuclear explosions and the dumping of radioactive waste there pending international agreements on nuclear uses.

Mexico Clamps Down On Loudest Communist Voice

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The Mexican government has clamped down on communism's loudest voice in the country, world-famed muralist David Alfaro Siqueiros.

The artist, who was elected secretary-general of the Mexican Communist party three months ago, was arrested Tuesday night while police were beating down another leftist-led demonstration by 800 teachers, college students and others in downtown Mexico City.

Police said Siqueiros spoke at the college just before the demonstration, which had been banned by the police. An unofficial source said officers tried to arrest him earlier in the day but he eluded them.

He was finally found at the home of a leftist friend, art collector Dr. Alvar Carillo Gil, who was arrested with him.

Newsmen first learned of the arrest when the artist's wife, Angelina Arenal, also a militant Communist, called a local newspaper. She said she did not know where her husband had been taken.

Police then confirmed Siqueiros was at headquarters "for questioning." He can be detained thus for 72 hours without formal charges.

Pair In Counterfeiting Case Given Pen Term

Two men charged with passing counterfeit $20 bills in the Weirton-Steubenville area in June have been sentenced to 15 years in prison by Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood in Columbus.

The sentences were imposed on Lawrence J. Perlatti, 26, of East Cleveland, and William R. Wheatley, 27, of London, Ont.

Secret Service agents and area authorities found about $11,000 in counterfeit $20 bills in a room in Pug's Hotel in Steubenville and in a locker in a Steubenville bus terminal.

The men had $780 in bogus bills on their persons when arrested. The counterfiet bills were scattered throughout Ohio Valley cities.

Driver Forfeits $50

LISBON — Ralph W. Williams, 27, of New Waterford forfeited $50 bond in Mayor Dean Stockman's court Tuesday evening on a charge of reckless operation. He was cited by village police.

Veteran Soldier Finds Wife And 2 Daughters Slain

HONOLULU (AP) — A veteran soldier arrived home Tuesday and found his Japanese-born wife and two young daughters and the wife's former boy friend shot to death, he told police.

"We don't know what to think," said Asst. Police Chief Leon Straus. "It looks like three murders and a suicide. But we're not sure of anything at this point."

The dead were Tomoko Katori Tatsuno, 25, Margie, 14 months, Ann, 4 months, and Jack Warden, 35, of Atlanta, Ga.

The death scene was a small studio apartment in Wahiawa, a small town 17 miles north of Honolulu.

The husband, Specialist Fourth Class Albert Tatsuno, 26, said he arrived home at 3:50 p.m. and found the door locked.

He told police he climbed through a bathroom window.

"He found his wife with a bullet through her head, Ann near death with the same kind of wound, and Warden dead with a bullet through the head," Straus said.

A .38 caliber revolver was under Warden's body, the officer said.

Georgia Will Decide On Electors' Backing

ATLANTA (AP)—It is now up to the people of Georgia to decide whether they want their 12 electors to back the Democratic party nominees or go to the Electoral College unpledged.

The State Democratic Executive Committee approved inclusion of the straw ballot on the Sept. 14 primary by a 71-1 vote Tuesday.

Under the state's 1958 unpledged elector law the electors will not be bound legally to follow a mandate of the people if the primary vote favors pledged electors.

But Gov. Ernest Vandiver has said the electors will be obligated morally to comply with the straw vote result.

At Desk Working As Usual

Former President Hoover Observes 86th Birthday

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Don't retire and start discussing pills with the fellow next door.

Keep working—say at the rate of seven days a week.

Once in a while, if you ever get the chance and like such things as fishing, try to hook a few brook trout.

All that is a time-tested formula offered by a man who has found it works very well, indeed: Herbert Hoover.

The former Republican president is spryly observing his 86th birthday today—at his desk working as usual. He didn't have time for anything else much, as eight full-time secretaries will readily affirm.

Hoover, with some reluctance but with good-natured remarks, took time out Tuesday to answer questions in connection with what he termed his "bipartisan" birthday and also to give a general accounting of his activities during the past year.

They included:

Attendance at 35 public functions, delivery of 20 speeches ("without a ghost writer"), answering 21,195 letters, acceptance of 23 awards, 14,000 miles of travel, television appearances, cornerstone layings and the raising of $1,200,000 or more for his pet project, the Boys Clubs of America.

"I hope you will conclude that I have not ceased work," he said smilingly to a roomful of reporters and photographers. He said he hadn't intended to hold a birthday news conference this year.

"I thought we had done that stunt often enough," Hoover remarked with a grin. "However, that idea met many protests."

He voiced pleasure at receiving "many touching tributes from both sides of the political area."

"I have many friends on the other side," he added.

Hoover said he also was gratified by an avalanche of favorable comment on his most recent "farewell speech" at the Republican National Convention.

Injuries Are Fatal

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Mrs. Jean Shirley, 33, of Lakewood, Ohio, died Tuesday of injuries received in a two-car collision Monday four miles east of Stuttgart, Ark. Her husband, Bruce, 28, was killed in the accident.

42nd Reunion Set By 37th Division

AKRON — The 37th Division Veterans Association will hold its 42nd annual reunion here Sept. 2-5, with headquarters at the Sheraton-Mayflower Hotel.

Members of the Ladies Association also will attend.

Allan D. Magid of Cleveland and Mrs. John Wolfram of Dayton are presidents of the two groups. Warden Ankeny of Lakemore and Fred Slabaugh of Akron are co-chairmen for the event.

Officers will be elected during the annual business meeting Sunday afternoon. A banquet will be held that night.

Lung Cancer Fatal

CLOSTER, N.J. (AP) — James S. Carson, 85, former newspaperman, utilities and banking executive and specialist on Latin American affairs, died Tuesday of lung cancer. He was Associated Press correspondent in Mexico during the time of Pancho Villa's border raids and later became a member of the Inter-American Arbitration Assn. and chairman of the Foreign Education Committee of the National Trade Council.

Youth Electrocuted

FRANKLIN, Ohio (AP) — William Vaughn, 19, of Franklin was electrocuted Tuesday, apparently while operating an electric impact wrench at a foundry where he was employed.

Widespread Damage

Rain, Electrical Storm Pound Cincinnati Area

CINCINNATI (AP)—A rain and electrical storm, described in many areas as the worst in years, lashed Cincinnati Tuesday night for three hours.

Water, wind and lightning caused widespread damage. There were unofficial guesses that the damage would run a million dollars or more. The storm poured 4.5 inches of rain on the mid-town area between 7 and 10 p.m.

A few parts of the city reported slightly less rain.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said a belt of thunderstorms first hit northwest of the city.

"It was moving along," a meteorologist explained, "and then all of a sudden it just stalled and stood there and poured on us."

Temperatures quickly dropped about 10 degrees and the Ohio River rose a foot within an hour.

About 10 p.m. the storm began to move southward and the rain diminished and finally stopped completely shortly before midnight.

During the height of the storm water ran three to four feet deep in many streets including some of the busiest thoroughfares.

A section of the roof a one-story addition to the Johnston Paper Bag Co. collapsed under the weight of accumulating rainfall.

Police said the water was three to four feet deep when they arrived on the scene and was gushing out the doors. Ironically, the collapse of the roof touched off the building's sprinkler system.

Most of the firm's paper products escaped damage, however, because they were stored above the floor on dollies.

The downtown Phelps Apartment, with 133 units, was hit by lightning. No one was hurt but elevator service was knocked out. A large quantity of newsprint was damaged or ruined by water in the Cincinnati Enquirer building.

Trees and electric wires were knocked down in several parts of the city. At least 15 automobiles were forced to stop on the Millcreek Expressway because of high water. Busy Central Parkway also was flooded in some areas.

One taxi cab driver said he saw water gushing six feet in the air from an overloaded sewer in the Price Hill area.

When it's 12 noon in New York City, it's 6 a. m. in Nome, Alaska.

Farmer-Owned Power In Ohio Seen Doubling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A power company executive predicts farmer - owned electric power plants in Ohio will double their power transmission in the next decade.

Howard A. Cummings, executive secretary of Ohio Rural Electric Co-operatives, Inc., said that, because of the move of both industry and residents to suburban areas, co-operatives' power growth is averaging seven per cent annually. He said the co-operatives cover 65 per cent of Ohio's land area with 600 miles of transmission lines and 30,000 miles of distribution lines, serving 128,000 homes.

Ohio Reports 15 Cases Of Polio In '60 To Date

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Three new polio cases were reported in Ohio in the past week, the State Health Department reports.

The state's total increases only by two, however, because of a change in diagnosis of a case reported earlier as polio in Montgomery County. The total for the year now is 15 cases, with no deaths reported.

The latest cases were reported from Cuyahoga County, which has reported a total of four; Lucas County, which now has two, and Medina County.

Two of the new cases involve paralysis, and two of the victims had received polio shots.

Daughter's Letter From Camp

Joe, Luckiest Man Alive

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The doctor waited until Joe Grapple had rolled down his sleeve and buttoned the cuff.

"I'm afraid you're a bit tense again, Mr. Grapple," he said. "And your blood pressure is up. Are you having any business problems."

"Naw, everything's okay at the old salt mine," said Joe. He hesitated a moment, then said reluctantly: "It's my daughter, Doris."

Doris was one of the doctor's favorite patients. Into his mind flashed the picture of a 14-year-old girl with a prudent face and blue eyes serious beyond her age.

"She went to a summer camp last week," said Joe. "This is the first year I been able to scare up the dough to send her."

"Did she have an accident?" asked the doctor.

"Oh, no, Doc. Nothing like that."

"Well, then, what's bothering you?"

"Well, we got a letter from her today — the first one — and it's kinda got me worried."

"Why?"

"Well, you know the crazy letters most kids write from camp, all about the goofy things that happen to them," he said.

"Guys at the office for years have been showing me the letters their kids wrote from camp—and they were all funny. Well, Doris didn't write anything funny, and I wonder if there's something wrong."

"Do you want to show me the letter?" inquired the doctor. That was exactly what Joe wanted. He quickly pulled out the letter.

The doctor read:

"Dearest Daddy,

"I am having a wonderful time at Camp Birchbark. The food is fine, and I have made friends with a girl named Ruth.

"We go swimming and canoeing together, and I am learning leatherwork and I am making a couple of surprise presents for you and mother.

"Last night before I feel asleep I heard a whippoorwill outside in the dark, and it made me a little homesick. I thought of you and mother in the hot, sticky city and wondered if you miss me as much as I miss you.

"Ruth told me how much it costs to stay at this camp. I didn't know it was so expensive. I guess that's really why you didn't get the new car you wanted, isn't it, Daddy?

"You and Mother have always done so much for me. I won't forget that either.

"Your loving daughter, Doris."

The doctor folded the letter and handed it to Joe. Joe looked at him anxiously.

"You think she's all right, Doc?" he asked. "She don't write nothing screwball like the other kids. You think she's okay?"

"I'd give everything in the world for a daughter who wrote me a letter like that," said the doctor. "Joe, you're the luckiest man alive."

Ohio's 2 Largest Phone Firms Will Expand Service

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's two largest telephone companies propose to provide service to areas of Washington, Monroe and Noble counties now served by seven relatively small companies.

In applications filed with the Utilities Commission, Ohio Bell Telephone and General Telephone Co. of Ohio suggest that:

General serve approximately the Harriettsville and Dalzell areas of the three counties and Bell serve the Moss Run, Lebanon, Graysvilles, Antioch and Brownsville areas.

After a public hearing in March, the commission indicated that the Brownsville Telephone Co. Graysville Mutual Telephone Co., Heslop Telephone Co., Lebanon Telephone Co., Plainview Telephone Co. and Dalzell Farmers Telephone Co. were unable to furnish adequate service and would be willing to cease operations if adjacent companies could provide modern facilities.

The Harriettsville Telephone Co. also is "unable to render reasonably adequate service," the commission asserted.

Wellsville School Band To Play At Kennywood

Wellsville High School's band will visit Kennywood Park for a "Festival of Music" event Aug. 27, it was announced when the Band Parents met Monday night in Beacom Memorial gym.

Mrs. William Pickens, president, also reported the band will appear in a parade at the Columbiana County Fair in Lisbon Aug. 25. Work was continued on preparation of football programs.

The next meeting is Sept. 12 at 8 p. m. in the health room of the gymnasium.

40 Attend Family Steak Fry Of Cherokee Boy Scout Group

Some 40 members, wives and guests attended the steak fry of the Cherokee Boy Scout District Committee Tuesday evening at Hammond Park at Wellsville.

Alton C. West, district chairman, introduced Bill Martin of Chester, a member-at-large, as the new health and safety chairman. Frank Rossi, organization and extension chairman, reported on the growth of the district.

Jerry D'Anegelo, advancement chairman, told of the advancement of units. Units represented were Troops 12, 31, 36 and 14. Packs included 36 and 25. Eugene Seeley, district commissioner, said all 45 units of the district have registered with the exception of 4 which are expected soon. Some 1,120 boys of the district are scouts.

Jim Pattison, local Navy recruiting officer and a member of the organization and extension committee, gave a report on charter presentations of the area. Frank L. Thompson, Explorer representative, spoke of the explorer program and the need for ideas for increased membership.

Adolf Brandt reported on plans for Troop 31. Bob Gray, scout official, spoke of registering for next year's summer camp.

Bill Rayburn, camping and activities chairman, prepared the menu and Tom Snow, training chairman, was in charge of reservations.

'Sleeping Beauties' Have New Baby Sister

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—This city's "sleeping beauties" have a new baby sister.

Mrs. Vincent N. Fratantonio gave birth to a 9-pound 5-ounces girl in St. Ann Hospital Tuesday night, her fifth child.

In recent months, much of the mother's time has been spent at another hospital, Mount Sinai, with her two other daughters, Bernadette, 3, and Venita, 3.

Bernadette became ill last fall, and Venita last month, with a mysterious ailment that has not yet been diagnosed. One moment either of them may be playing and wide awake, and the next moment sound asleep. The periods of sleep vary in length.

Two sons, Joseph, 7, and James, 4, have not been affected.

Play Production Eyed By Little Theater Unit

Possibilities of staging a set of three-act plays late next year were discussed by the Columbiana County Little Theater Group at an informal business meeting Tuesday night at the Lisbon village hall.

Excerpts were read from "Ah, Wilderness."

Members discussed securing storage space for some theatrical props the group owns. Anyone willing to provide space that could be used for storage is urged to contact Walter Taylor of Salem, acting chairman.

8 Youths To Compete For State Fair 'Rodeo'

LISBON — Eight finalists will compete Aug. 23 for a chance to represent Columbiana County at the Ohio State Fair at Columbus in the annual tractor rodeo, according to Joseph V. Burger, county extension agent in 4-H work.

The eight youhts were declared winners in a contest held Monday evening at the Gause & Ritchie Implement Sales after they took a written examination on tractor maintenance and safety, backed a four wheel trailer through an opening a foot wider than the trailer and pulled a two-wheel implement over an obstacle course.

The winners were Leo Davis of East Rochester R. D. 1; Dale McKarns of Hanoverton R. D. 1; Alan Knizat of Salem R. D. 2; Bill Skeels of Lisbon R. D. 4; Fred Hippely of Salem R. D. 3; Tom Cope of Leetonia R. D. 2; Wayne Walton of Salem R. D. 2 and Dwight Dickey of Kensington R. D. 1.

The first American woman novelist was Lydi Maria Child of Massachusetts. Her novel, "Hobomok," was published anonymously in 1821.

4-H News

Columbiana County 4-H members and advisors are busy developing the evening grandstand show, "4-H Showboat," to be presented Tuesday, Aug. 23, at the County Fair, according to Joseph V. Burger, county extension agent in 4-H work.

Approximately 300 members and advisors are rehearsing various talent selections for the show being planned by the County 4-H Council. Harold Milliken of Salem R. D. 3 is chairman.

Mrs. Ruth Frischkorn of Wellsville is directing the dramatic section; Mrs. Earl Seevers of East Rochester, Mrs. Carl Miller of Leetonia and Mrs. Steve Knizat of Salem, singing; Glen Bartholow of Salem, music; Mrs. Ruth Jenkins of Rogers, publicity, and Ike Skeels of Lisbon and Milliken, stage equipment.

All 4-H members are selling tickets, which may also be purchased the night of the performance.

The Columbiana County 4- Steer Club has completed plans for the steer sale at the County Fair.

The club will auction 40 head of choice steers Wednesday, Aug. 24, at 8 p. m. in the judging pavilion at the fairgrounds in Lisbon.

Glenn Shreve of Damascus again will be sales manager.

Members of the steer committee, of which Bill Werner is chairman, will assist.

Soviet Ousts U.S. Air Aide

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today ordered the expulsion of Col. Edwin M. Kerton, air attache at the U.S. Embassy, and delivered a warning to his assistant, Capt. Irving T. Macdonald.

The government accused them of photographing military objectives.

The Russians said that "competent Soviet Organs" established that Kirton "has been engaged in activities which are incompatible with the status of a member of the diplomatic staff."

"Recently, together with his assistant, I. T. Macdonald, Kirton was apprehended while photographing military objects during a trip to Kurgan," a statement said.

"Macdonald has been warned by the U.S.S.R. Ministry of Foreign Affairs."

Kurgan is an important railway junction in the southwest part of the Russian republic. It is near Sverdlovsk, where Francis Gary Powers—now facing trial as a U.S. spy—came down on a flight in a U2 reconnaissance plane on May 1.

Man Saves Son, Woman And Self In Near Tragedy

SOUTHOLD, N.Y. (AP)—Two men, a woman and a boy on a railroad trestle faced sudden death Tuesday when a train rounded a curve and pounded toward them at 55 miles an hour.

Antonio Penper, 62, New York City, made a dash for safety but was hit by the train and killed.

His son, Antonio Jr., 36, quickly pushed his own son, George, 6, and Mary McAlpine down on the ties edging the Long Island Rail Road tracks. He dropped across them and held on as the train thundered past. Their only injury was a slight cut on Antonio's left hand.

Kennedy, Nixon Reach Agreement On Debate

NEW YORK (AP)—Agreement has been reached that Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy should meet in live debate on television and radio.

Representatives of the two presidential candidates discussed it Tuesday with executves of four networks.

Midland Voter Signup Slated

Voter registration will be held Sept. 12 at the Midland Borough Building for residents of the area who need to register or change their address to be eligible to vote in the Nov. 8 general election.

Residents of Midland, Industry, Ohio Township and Glasgow will register at the Midland Borough Building.

Residents of Georgetown, Hookstown, Greene Township, and Frankfort Springs will register register Aug. 30 at Tiderman's Garage at Routes 18 and 30.

Shippingport and Raccoon Township residents will register Aug. 30 at the elementary school in Raccoon.

The Beaver County Registration Commission has announced the schedule for voters. Hours for registration will be 1 to 9 p. m. (DST).

The commission said that Sept. 19 will be the last day to register and the registration office at Beaver will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 9 p. m. that day.

The last day to move from one district to another will be Sept. 9.

Former Wellsville Girl Gets Scholarship

Miss Janice Deane Moncrief, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James William Moncrief, of Weirton, formerly of Wellsville, has been awarded a four-year teaching scholarship to West Liberty State College.

She attended Wellsville public schools and is the granddaughter of William Moncrief, 1613 Commerce St.

She was graduated from Follansbee High School in May and was active in the varsity marching and concert bands, the chorus, Future Homemakers of America, Junior and Senior Y-Teens, Pep Club, Masque and Gavel, and Commercial Club, and was typist for the Forge and the Ingot, the school newspaper.

She also plays trombone with the Wheeling Youth Symphony.

She will use her scholarship to major in elementary education and minor in music, beginning in September.

52 At Hookstown Bible Class Held In U.P. Church

Some 52 children are enrolled in the Daily Vacation Bible School which began Monday at the Hookstown United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Chester Elliott is leader. It ends Friday and a program and display will be held Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Stroud of Hookstown entertained Friday evening, honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. Eugene Beal, with a baby shower.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Beal, and Mrs. Jack Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Potts of Hookstown entertained with a dinner Sunday to honor the birthday anniversaries of her father, John C. Boyd of Hookstown and her uncle, William M. Boyd of 5th St., Chester.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, Mrs. Clara Hall of Georgetown R. D. and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boyd of Aliquippa.

Guests Sunday evening at the Potts home were Melvin Boyd of Weirton and Mrs. William Miller of Laurel Heights, Chester.

Chester Driver Draws $25 Fine

A Chester motorist was fined $25 and costs Tuesday night by acting mayor Roy Cashdollar while two other motorists forfeited a total of $121 in bonds when they failed to appear.

Benjamin H. Morris of Adolphus St., Chester, was fined for driving without a city operator's license. He was cited Tuesday afternoon by Police Chief Harold Davis in a 30-minute traffic check at Carolina Ave. and 9th St.

George E. James of Dade, Fla., forfeited a $110.50 bond for reckless driving. He was charged Saturday by the police chief, who said James was driving on the wrong side of the road and forced his cruiser onto the berm on W. Carolina Ave.

Gary Freeman of New Cumberland R. D. 1 forfeited $10.50 on a charge of failure to halt for a traffic signal Sunday on Carolina Ave. at 6th St.

The Fates were Greek goddesses of destiny, charged with spinning the thread of life, determining its length and finally cutting it.

Election Board Meets Tonight

The County Election Board will meet tonight in its W. 6th St. headquarters to grant ballot places to questions and issues already certified and to award contracts for printing ballots for the Nov. 8 general election.

Ballot places are expected to be granted for an East Liverpool income tax question, which City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate was scheduled to certify before the filing deadline at 4 p. m., and another initiative ordinance seeking a vote on a 56-hour work week in Salem.

An ordinance asking a reduced work week for Wellsville policemen also is expected to be filed today by Auditor Edgar S. Davidson.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, election board clerk, said some issues still can be accepted under the uniform tax law until Sept. 14.

Among petitions still awaited is renewal of a 2-mill garbage levy in East Liverpool.

San Diego Bandit Executed At 27

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — Quietly, almost eagerly, Robert Harmon died in San Quentin's gas chamber Tuesday.

"I think he just wanted to get it over with," said Warden Fred Dickson.

Harmon, 27, a San Diego bandit, was sentenced to die for assaulting a fellow convict. Harmon was serving 10 years to life for armed robbery. State law at the time decreed that a lifer must die for assault in prison.

The Legislature changed the law after Harmon was sentenced to the gas chamber but he resisted attempts to have his sentence commuted to life.

He wrote to Gov. Edmund G. Brown that he wanted to die and the governor said he would not interfere.

Segregation On Miami Beaches May Be At End

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Racial segregation on the beaches here may be at an end.

Tuesday for the second day in a row, a Negro family of six swam unmolested at a public beach.

"Our policy is to let them be," commented a police official.

Constables Association To Hold Picnic Aug. 21

LISBON — Final plans for the annual picnic were made at the meeting of the Columbiana County Constables Association Tuesday evening at the fire station at North Georgetown.

Constable Roy Painter of Hanoverton, president, said the outing for constables, their wives and children will be held Sunday, Aug. 21, at 4 p. m. at Lake Marwin, near East Liverpool. Dinner will be at 6:30.

The next meeting will be Sept. 13 at the East Palestine city hall.

Four townships in Columbiana County and one in Carroll were represented at last night's meeting.

40 Attend Family Steak Fry Of Cherokee Boy Scout Group

Some 40 members, wives and guests attended the steak fry of the Cherokee Boy Scout District Committee Tuesday evening at Hammond Park at Wellsville.

Alton C. West, district chairman, introduced Bill Martin of Chester, a member-at-large, as the new health and safety chairman. Frank Rossi, organization and extension chairman, reported on the growth of the district.

Jerry D'Anegelo, advancement chairman, told of the advancement of units. Units represented were Troops 12, 31, 36 and 14. Packs included 36 and 25. Eugene Seeley, district commissioner, said all 45 units of the district have registered with the exception of 4 which are expected soon. Some 1,120 boys of the district are scouts.

Jim Pattison, local Navy recruiting officer and a member of the organization and extension committee, gave a report on charter presentations of the area. Frank L. Thompson, Explorer representative, spoke of the explorer program and the need for ideas for increased membership.

Adolf Brandt reported on plans for Troop 31. Bob Gray, scout official, spoke of registering for next year's summer camp.

Bill Rayburn, camping and activities chairman, prepared the menu and Tom Snow, training chairman, was in charge of reservations.

'Sleeping Beauties' Have New Baby Sister

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—This city's "sleeping beauties" have a new baby sister.

Mrs. Vincent N. Fratantonio gave birth to a 9-pound 5-ounces girl in St. Ann Hospital Tuesday night, her fifth child.

In recent months, much of the mother's time has been spent at another hospital, Mount Sinai, with her two other daughters, Bernadette, 3, and Venita, 3.

Bernadette became ill last fall, and Venita last month, with a mysterious ailment that has not yet been diagnosed. One moment either of them may be playing and wide awake, and the next moment sound asleep. The periods of sleep vary in length.

Two sons, Joseph, 7, and James, 4, have not been affected.

Play Production Eyed By Little Theater Unit

Possibilities of staging a set of three-act plays late next year were discussed by the Columbiana County Little Theater Group at an informal business meeting Tuesday night at the Lisbon village hall.

Excerpts were read from "Ah, Wilderness."

Members discussed securing storage space for some theatrical props the group owns. Anyone willing to provide space that could be used for storage is urged to contact Walter Taylor of Salem, acting chairman.

8 Youths To Compete For State Fair 'Rodeo'

LISBON — Eight finalists will compete Aug. 23 for a chance to represent Columbiana County at the Ohio State Fair at Columbus in the annual tractor rodeo, according to Joseph V. Burger, county extension agent in 4-H work.

The eight youhts were declared winners in a contest held Monday evening at the Gause & Ritchie Implement Sales after they took a written examination on tractor maintenance and safety, backed a four wheel trailer through an opening a foot wider than the trailer and pulled a two-wheel implement over an obstacle course.

The winners were Leo Davis of East Rochester R. D. 1; Dale McKarns of Hanoverton R. D. 1; Alan Knizat of Salem R. D. 2; Bill Skeels of Lisbon R. D. 4; Fred Hippely of Salem R. D. 3; Tom Cope of Leetonia R. D. 2; Wayne Walton of Salem R. D. 2 and Dwight Dickey of Kensington R. D. 1.

The first American woman novelist was Lydi Maria Child of Massachusetts. Her novel, "Hobomok," was published anonymously in 1821.

4-H News

Columbiana County 4-H members and advisors are busy developing the evening grandstand show, "4-H Showboat," to be presented Tuesday, Aug. 23, at the County Fair, according to Joseph V. Burger, county extension agent in 4-H work.

Approximately 300 members and advisors are rehearsing various talent selections for the show being planned by the County 4-H Council. Harold Milliken of Salem R. D. 3 is chairman.

Mrs. Ruth Frischkorn of Wellsville is directing the dramatic section; Mrs. Earl Seevers of East Rochester, Mrs. Carl Miller of Leetonia and Mrs. Steve Knizat of Salem, singing; Glen Bartholow of Salem, music; Mrs. Ruth Jenkins of Rogers, publicity, and Ike Skeels of Lisbon and Milliken, stage equipment.

All 4-H members are selling tickets, which may also be purchased the night of the performance.

The Columbiana County 4- Steer Club has completed plans for the steer sale at the County Fair.

The club will auction 40 head of choice steers Wednesday, Aug. 24, at 8 p. m. in the judging pavilion at the fairgrounds in Lisbon.

Glenn Shreve of Damascus again will be sales manager.

Members of the steer committee, of which Bill Werner is chairman, will assist.

Communist Boycott Defied

U.N. Disarmament Unit To Study Geneva Failure

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —Defying a Communist boycott, the 82-nation U. N. Disarmament Commission has been called to meet Tuesday afternoon to consider the failure of the Geneva disarmament talks.

Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico, chairman of the commission, scheduled the meeting in response to a request the United States made July 22. The meeting will constitute a farewell appearance for Henry Cabot Lodge, chief U. S. delegate to the U. N. since 1954, who will resign at its conclusion to campaign as the Republican candidate for the U. S. vice presidency.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov told delegates from the neutral nations the nine Soviet bloc nations would boycott any disarmament commission meeting and hoped they would do the same. Despite Kuznetsov's urging, most neutrals are expected to attend the session, and some Western diplomats think the Soviets also will show up.

The Soviets proposed that discussion of disarmament be deferred until the General Assembly opening Sept. 20 and that the 82 heads of government attend to provide a summit discussion of disarmament and other major world problems.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev plugged this idea again Tuesday in an interview published in Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper. Khrushchev said he would consider it a great honor to be present for the disarmament discussion.

The Soviet proposal for a summit assembly meeting got the cold reception from the U.S. government that was generally expected in the wake of Khrushchev's walkout on the Paris summit meeting, his cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit to the Soviet Union and the recent Soviet vilification of Eisenhower.

Lodge will lead off the discussion in the disarmament commission with the West's explanation for the breakdown in the 10-nation Geneva talks—that the Soviet Union and the four other Communist delegations, in walking out June 27, demonstrated that they never intended to negotiate seriously.

Steel Slump Nearing End, Report Says

NEW YORK (AP)—The steel industry may be about to pull out of its long slump, Iron Age Magazine said today.

Right now, the metalworking weekly declared, "the best that can be said is that business has passed the low point.

"But a number of new, though relatively minor, developments in the steel business . . . indicate the market may be ready to move."

The magazine noted these signs in the market:

1. A slight pick up in orders which has raised the order rate to around 50 per cent of capacity;

2. The order increase has been largely offset by a dwindling of backlogs;

3. Most new orders are for quick delivery which may lead to a situation where mills cannot meet all rush business;

4. Forward buying is light and mills do not expect advance booking to increase until the limits of rush delivery are reached;

5. Flat-rolled business is relatively good and galvanized is even stronger; but hot-rolled has declined and tinplate is questionable.

October figures to be the biggest month of the second half, Iron Age said. It predicted operations for the month will possibly reach 70 to 73 per cent.

West Virginians Will Vote On State Law Amendments

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Underwood's office issued Tuesday routine proclamations related to submission to the people in the Nov. 8 general election of three amendments to the state constitution.

One would give the constitution a preamble reaffirming faith in God, and another would provide for continuity of state government in any emergencies resulting from enemy attack.

The third would permit a proposed amendment dealing with a single subject to modify as many articles or sections of the constitution as may be necessary to accomplish the amendment's objectives.

The constitution requires, among other things, that amendments proposed to the people by the Legislature be published at least three months prior to the selection in some newspaper in each county.

Mrs. Powers Not Surprised By Red Claims On Son's Plea

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Francis Gary Powers was described today as not surprised by Soviet claims that her U2 pilot husband had "pleaded guilty to the essence of the charge" of spying on the Soviet Union.

"She reacted the same as all of us—such a claim was more or less expected," a Virginia attorney said.

Mrs. Powers' reaction was reported by Alex W. Parker of Richmond, one of the attorneys named by the Virginia Bar Assn. to help defend Powers when he goes on trial in Moscow Aug. 17 on espionage charges. Powers' plane was downed over the Soviet Union May 1.

The Soviet news agency Tass Tuesday distributed the text of an indictment quoting the pilot as saying he had in effect pleaded guilty to flying over Soviet territory "with the aim of collecting intelligence information about the Soviet Union."

The State Department in turn noted that Powers, 30, had been in "exclusive control" of Soviet authorities for 101 days. It added "anything he says" should be judged in this light.

Mrs. Powers' travel plans for her trip to Moscow remained indefinite as she awaited Soviet permission for Parker and Frank W. Rogers of Roanoke, another attorney named by the Virginia Bar to help defend the pilot, to attend the trial.

Also awaiting visas here were Mrs. Powers' mother, Mrs. Monteen Brown, and the mother's physician, Dr. James Baugh, both of Milledgeville, Ga. Mrs. Powers' visa has been approved.

The departure time of the pilots' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Powers, also was indefinite. They arrived here Monday from their Pound, Va., home on the first leg of their trip to Moscow.

Bethlehem Man Elected Head Of Kiwanis Area

Morgan Wallace of Bethlehem, near Wheeling, office worker at the Wheeling Steel Co., was elected Kiwanis Club lieutenant governor of the 1st Division at a meeting of the five divsion clubs —including Chester—Tuesday night at Weirton.

Wallace, who succeeds James Kutsch of Wheeling, will begin his duties Jan. 1.

Nine members of the Chester club attended the session at which Ken Love of Wheeling, past district governor, spoke briefly.

I. R. Witthuhn of Milwaukee, president-elect of Kiwanis International, will speak at a "Ladies Night" dinner meeting of the division Nov. 22 at Wheeling.

The state convention will be held Aug. 28-30 at Beckley.

It's Like Robbing Peter To Pay Paul

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The Berkeley School Board Tuesday night approved an eight per cent salary increase for teachers and school administrators.

The board said the raise would be paid for by eliminating the jobs of 29 teachers and nine administrators.

Soviet Ousts U.S. Air Aide

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today ordered the expulsion of Col. Edwin M. Kerton, air attache at the U.S. Embassy, and delivered a warning to his assistant, Capt. Irving T. Macdonald.

The government accused them of photographing military objectives.

The Russians said that "competent Soviet Organs" established that Kirton "has been engaged in activities which are incompatible with the status of a member of the diplomatic staff."

"Recently, together with his assistant, I. T. Macdonald, Kirton was apprehended while photographing military objects during a trip to Kurgan," a statement said.

"Macdonald has been warned by the U.S.S.R. Ministry of Foreign Affairs."

Kurgan is an important railway junction in the southwest part of the Russian republic. It is near Sverdlovsk, where Francis Gary Powers—now facing trial as a U.S. spy—came down on a flight in a U2 reconnaissance plane on May 1.

Man Saves Son, Woman And Self In Near Tragedy

SOUTHOLD, N.Y. (AP)—Two men, a woman and a boy on a railroad trestle faced sudden death Tuesday when a train rounded a curve and pounded toward them at 55 miles an hour.

Antonio Penper, 62, New York City, made a dash for safety but was hit by the train and killed.

His son, Antonio Jr., 36, quickly pushed his own son, George, 6, and Mary McAlpine down on the ties edging the Long Island Rail Road tracks. He dropped across them and held on as the train thundered past. Their only injury was a slight cut on Antonio's left hand.

Kennedy, Nixon Reach Agreement On Debate

NEW YORK (AP)—Agreement has been reached that Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy should meet in live debate on television and radio.

Representatives of the two presidential candidates discussed it Tuesday with executves of four networks.

Midland Voter Signup Slated

Voter registration will be held Sept. 12 at the Midland Borough Building for residents of the area who need to register or change their address to be eligible to vote in the Nov. 8 general election.

Residents of Midland, Industry, Ohio Township and Glasgow will register at the Midland Borough Building.

Residents of Georgetown, Hookstown, Greene Township, and Frankfort Springs will register register Aug. 30 at Tiderman's Garage at Routes 18 and 30.

Shippingport and Raccoon Township residents will register Aug. 30 at the elementary school in Raccoon.

The Beaver County Registration Commission has announced the schedule for voters. Hours for registration will be 1 to 9 p. m. (DST).

The commission said that Sept. 19 will be the last day to register and the registration office at Beaver will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 9 p. m. that day.

The last day to move from one district to another will be Sept. 9.

Former Wellsville Girl Gets Scholarship

Miss Janice Deane Moncrief, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James William Moncrief, of Weirton, formerly of Wellsville, has been awarded a four-year teaching scholarship to West Liberty State College.

She attended Wellsville public schools and is the granddaughter of William Moncrief, 1613 Commerce St.

She was graduated from Follansbee High School in May and was active in the varsity marching and concert bands, the chorus, Future Homemakers of America, Junior and Senior Y-Teens, Pep Club, Masque and Gavel, and Commercial Club, and was typist for the Forge and the Ingot, the school newspaper.

She also plays trombone with the Wheeling Youth Symphony.

She will use her scholarship to major in elementary education and minor in music, beginning in September.

52 At Hookstown Bible Class Held In U.P. Church

Some 52 children are enrolled in the Daily Vacation Bible School which began Monday at the Hookstown United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Chester Elliott is leader. It ends Friday and a program and display will be held Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Stroud of Hookstown entertained Friday evening, honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. Eugene Beal, with a baby shower.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Beal, and Mrs. Jack Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Potts of Hookstown entertained with a dinner Sunday to honor the birthday anniversaries of her father, John C. Boyd of Hookstown and her uncle, William M. Boyd of 5th St., Chester.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, Mrs. Clara Hall of Georgetown R. D. and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boyd of Aliquippa.

Guests Sunday evening at the Potts home were Melvin Boyd of Weirton and Mrs. William Miller of Laurel Heights, Chester.

Chester Driver Draws $25 Fine

A Chester motorist was fined $25 and costs Tuesday night by acting mayor Roy Cashdollar while two other motorists forfeited a total of $121 in bonds when they failed to appear.

Benjamin H. Morris of Adolphus St., Chester, was fined for driving without a city operator's license. He was cited Tuesday afternoon by Police Chief Harold Davis in a 30-minute traffic check at Carolina Ave. and 9th St.

George E. James of Dade, Fla., forfeited a $110.50 bond for reckless driving. He was charged Saturday by the police chief, who said James was driving on the wrong side of the road and forced his cruiser onto the berm on W. Carolina Ave.

Gary Freeman of New Cumberland R. D. 1 forfeited $10.50 on a charge of failure to halt for a traffic signal Sunday on Carolina Ave. at 6th St.

The Fates were Greek goddesses of destiny, charged with spinning the thread of life, determining its length and finally cutting it.

Election Board Meets Tonight

The County Election Board will meet tonight in its W. 6th St. headquarters to grant ballot places to questions and issues already certified and to award contracts for printing ballots for the Nov. 8 general election.

Ballot places are expected to be granted for an East Liverpool income tax question, which City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate was scheduled to certify before the filing deadline at 4 p. m., and another initiative ordinance seeking a vote on a 56-hour work week in Salem.

An ordinance asking a reduced work week for Wellsville policemen also is expected to be filed today by Auditor Edgar S. Davidson.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, election board clerk, said some issues still can be accepted under the uniform tax law until Sept. 14.

Among petitions still awaited is renewal of a 2-mill garbage levy in East Liverpool.

San Diego Bandit Executed At 27

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — Quietly, almost eagerly, Robert Harmon died in San Quentin's gas chamber Tuesday.

"I think he just wanted to get it over with," said Warden Fred Dickson.

Harmon, 27, a San Diego bandit, was sentenced to die for assaulting a fellow convict. Harmon was serving 10 years to life for armed robbery. State law at the time decreed that a lifer must die for assault in prison.

The Legislature changed the law after Harmon was sentenced to the gas chamber but he resisted attempts to have his sentence commuted to life.

He wrote to Gov. Edmund G. Brown that he wanted to die and the governor said he would not interfere.

Segregation On Miami Beaches May Be At End

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Racial segregation on the beaches here may be at an end.

Tuesday for the second day in a row, a Negro family of six swam unmolested at a public beach.

"Our policy is to let them be," commented a police official.

Constables Association To Hold Picnic Aug. 21

LISBON — Final plans for the annual picnic were made at the meeting of the Columbiana County Constables Association Tuesday evening at the fire station at North Georgetown.

Constable Roy Painter of Hanoverton, president, said the outing for constables, their wives and children will be held Sunday, Aug. 21, at 4 p. m. at Lake Marwin, near East Liverpool. Dinner will be at 6:30.

The next meeting will be Sept. 13 at the East Palestine city hall.

Four townships in Columbiana County and one in Carroll were represented at last night's meeting.

High Court Asked To Bar New Trial For Canton Youth

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court was asked today to block a new trial for a Canton youth convicted of second-degree murder in the drag-race killing of three motorists.

An appellate court ordered a new trial for Ellis Patterson Jr., on grounds that his jury was not instructed that first and second-degree manslaughter verdicts could have been returned.

The state appealed from that decision to the high court.

12,000 Idled At J&L Steel By Rail Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Some 300 trainmen struck the Monongahela connecting railroad today in a contract dispute idling 12,000 steel workers at the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. Pittsburgh works.

A 21-hour negotiating session failed to avert the strike.

The strikers are members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

A spokesman said the union is seeking a contract similar to that signed by the United Steelworkers and the basic steel industry.

The railroad serves two J&L plants in Pittsburgh. Company officials said the plant can't operate without the railroad, a subsidiary which hauls materials and supplies in the plants.

About 700 other railroad employes were idled by the strike.

A spokesman for the railroad said a package deal equivalent to the basic steel settlement already has been offered to the trainmen. The brotherhood, however, says the offer falls short of the steel settlement.

Exact issues in the dispute have not been made public.

Technical Problems Delay Satellite Firing

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Technical problems with the Thor-Delta carrier rocket caused a second postponement early today in an attempt to launch a 100-foot balloon communications satellites into orbit.

Another launching attempt will be made Friday.

The United States administers 8,475 square miles of Pacific islanders under trusteeship granted by the United Nations.

Negroes Attack Discrimination In Golf Circles

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Negro golfers, irked at a Park Department refusal to allow a Negro tournament at its usual date this summer, say there is discrimination against Negroes in golfing circles.

James A. Keyes, a Democratic alderman and a member of the Knickerbockers Golfers Club, a Negro group, said Tuesday the group's annual tournament at the municipal course, scheduled during the last 14 years for the last Sunday in July, was not permitted this year.

The Park Department, Keyes said, stated no tournament could be held on weekends or holidays between Memorial Day and Labor Day to prevent inconvenience to regular players.

But, Keyes protested, the New Haven Municipal Golf Assn., an all-white group, has scheduled a tournament for Saturday, Aug. 20.

Park Director James E. Coogan explained the municipal group's tournament was permitted on condition the players did not reserve tees. With that stipulation the tournament would not violate the park board ruling, he said.

Midland Boosters Set Band Trip To Kennywood Park

Participation of the Midland Lincoln High School band in a festival of bands Aug. 25 at Kennywood Park was discussed at a meeting of the Band Boosters Club Tuesday evening in the Steelworkers Hall.

Some three buses will leave the high school at 9:30 a. m. for the Pittsburgh park. Charles P. Henderson, band director, will be in charge. The boosters will name chaperones later for the trip. The Board of Education Monday evening gave its approval.

Plans were also discussed for a corn roast for band members Aug. 23 at the No. 1 Shelter at Brady's Run State Park. Buses will leave the high school at 9:30 a. m. for the all-day affair. Mrs. Edward Cronin is chairman.

Anthony Vohar was named chairman for a membership drive to begin in September.

Henderson and his committee, including Pete Vuyakovich and Joe Benek, will present a budget for the coming year at the next meeting Sept. 13 at the high school.

A $5 donation was made for the Mothers Athletic Association, which holds an annual sports banquet. The club will continue giving treats to both bands following three home football games this fall.

Mrs. Peter Vukas, president, presided.

Resignation Of Chief Under Fire At Industry

Several Industry residents have signed a petition to attend a meeting of the Borough Council Aug. 17 for an airing of the reasons Police Chief Earl J. Hineman resigned at last week's meeting.

Hineman, who had planned to resign since January, had agreed to stay on until Council can name a successor. His resignation was believed caused by political fault finding, friends said.

Air Pollution Survey Slated

A six-months preliminary air pollution survey of the Ohio Valley from East Liverpool to New Martinsville, probably will get under way later this month.

James C. Martin, executive director of the Ohio Valley Air Pollution Control Council, said at Wheeling yesterday the $13,400 survey is tentatively scheduled to begin the week of Aug. 28.

The project will require the services of a project engineer and five or six part-time engineers, and will be financed by the participating agencies without funds from any municipality.

The agencies in the study of the area's air pollution problems are the Public Health Service of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the State Health Departments of Ohio and West Virginia, the OVAPCC, and local colleges, businesses and industries.

Martin said the PHS has agreed to expend some $7,600 to help finance the survey, while West Virginia will provide $1,200 and the OVAPCC will finance the remaining $4,600.

The survey is expected to be completed over a period of six months. It will cover Columbiana, Jefferson, Belmont and Monroe Counties in Ohio, and Hancock, Brooke, Ohio, Marshall and Wetzel Counties in West Virginia. Headquarters will be in Wheeling.

"When this study is finished, this area will probably be the best surveyed, air pollution wise, of any region in the U. S.," Martin said.

"It will give us arguments so proper legislation regulating air pollution can be passed. In addition, it will enable us to work toward getting each and every community in the area to co-operate in combating air pollution as it should."

Catholic Youth Council Will Install Officers

Installation of officers of the Catholic Youth Council of the Midland Presentation Catholic Church will be held Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in the church.

Fr. John B. Corbett, assistant pastor and supervisor, will conduct the installation. A registration of members will follow in the lyceum.

Plans were made during an informal meeting of council officers and committees Monday evening at the rectory. A picnic will be held Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. at Crucible Park. There will be games and refreshments.

Members must present membership cards at the picnic. Music for dancing at the park pavilion will be tape recordings.

75 Hear Talks On Beef At Producers Meeting

LISBON — Some 75 Columbiana and Mahoning County youths and adults attended the annual summer meeting of beef producers of the two counties at the C. E. Peterson farm near Alliance Tuesday night.

Charles Whittelsey of Atwater, Angus breeder and director of the Northeast Ohio Angus Association, was judge for the ring of steers and heifers. He also presented a ifitting and showing demonstration.

William Wharton, extension specialist at Ohio State University, presented a demonstration and discussed grading of cattle and scoring for production testing.

Search Goes On For 8 Escapees Who Fled 3 Jails

CHARLESTON (AP) — The search was still on today for eight escapees from three jails here and in Huntington.

Those at large included four of the five men who escaped from Kanawha County jail in Charleston during a hard rainstorm that cloaked their long climb to freedom from the roof.

The other county jail escapee, 25-year-old William Arnold Phillips of South Charleston, was captured yesterday morning.

Also still free today was a 16-year-old juvenile who bolted from his detention cell on the fourth floor of City Hall here yesterday; and three men — one a former mental patient — who escaped from the Cabell County jail in Huntington Monday night.

The Huntington escapees were listed by Sheriff J. Bert Schroeder as Frank Ray Blackburn, 21, of Huntington, who once was in a mental institution; Melvin Ray Jordan, 20, of Lesage, and Billy Brown, 23, of Charleston.

Still free from the Kanawha County jail were Isaac R. Justis, 25, Banner Elk, N. C.; Okey C. Price, 23, from Michigan; Odery Reed, 26, of Sissenville, and Walter McCormick, 33, Tad.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Two Latin-Americans and a girl from the icy north are the first winners at the international beauty contest. The preliminary winners:

Stella Marquez of Colombia, evening gown division.

Sirry Geirsdotter of Iceland, playsuit division.

Gladys Ascanio of Venezuela, native costume and speaking division.

Miss International Beauty will be chosen Friday from among the 52 contestants from all over the world.

Boosters Plan Booth At Fair

Chairmen were named to contact workers for a refreshment booth in the Columbiana County Fair in Lisbon when the Beaver Local Boosters Club met Tuesday night in the high school near Williamsport. About 20 attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Williams were named co-chairmen of the booth at the fairgrounds.

District chairmen named to contact workers include Mrs. Mike Klembara, West Point; Mrs. Lee Myers, Calcutta; Mrs. Richard Smith, Elkton, and Mrs. Glen Baker, Rogers.

George Dunn was named a representative from the club to the high school's Athletic Association. Mrs. Arthur Cloran was named chairman of the fall festival Sept. 30-Oct. 1.

Foyn Wright, president, presided for business. George Wilkinson offered prayer. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson served refreshments.

The next meeting will be Sept. 13. Mrs. Charles Smith will serve refreshments.

The United States has more sects and varied churches than any other in the world.

Wetzel 'Trumps' Democrats With Truck Lane Plan

LISBON — Not to be outdone by the Democrats, State Rep. Clarence Wetzel (R) of Lisbon has joined in an appeal for a truck lane—this time on Rt. 30.

The Columbiana County Democratic Committee has asked the Division 11 office of the State Highway Department to investigate the need for a third lane for truck traffic on the Rogers Hill of Rt. 7 and the Washingtonville Hill of Rt. 14-A.

Rep. Wetzel said he favors this but that the worst portion of highway, with as much traffic as either Rt. 7 or Alternate 14, is Rt. 30 from Lisbon to Hanoverton. The Canton Hill of Rt. 30 just west of Lisbon also should be considered for improvement, the Lisbon representative said.

Rep. Wetzel said he believes the Lisbon-Hanoverton Rd. is the worst stretch of Rt. 30 in the state and is "a disgrace to Ohio."

Surveys have been made to reroute portions of the road but no definite action ever has been taken.

High Court Asked To Bar New Trial For Canton Youth

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court was asked today to block a new trial for a Canton youth convicted of second-degree murder in the drag-race killing of three motorists.

An appellate court ordered a new trial for Ellis Patterson Jr., on grounds that his jury was not instructed that first and second-degree manslaughter verdicts could have been returned.

The state appealed from that decision to the high court.

Midland Boosters Set Band Trip To Kennywood Park

Participation of the Midland Lincoln High School band in a festival of bands Aug. 25 at Kennywood Park was discussed at a meeting of the Band Boosters Club Tuesday evening in the Steelworkers Hall.

Some three buses will leave the high school at 9:30 a. m. for the Pittsburgh park. Charles P. Henderson, band director, will be in charge. The boosters will name chaperones later for the trip. The Board of Education Monday evening gave its approval.

Plans were also discussed for a corn roast for band members Aug. 23 at the No. 1 Shelter at Brady's Run State Park. Buses will leave the high school at 9:30 a. m. for the all-day affair. Mrs. Edward Cronin is chairman.

Anthony Vohar was named chairman for a membership drive to begin in September.

Henderson and his committee, including Pete Vuyakovich and Joe Benek, will present a budget for the coming year at the next meeting Sept. 13 at the high school.

A $5 donation was made for the Mothers Athletic Association, which holds an annual sports banquet. The club will continue giving treats to both bands following three home football games this fall.

Mrs. Peter Vukas, president, presided.

Resignation Of Chief Under Fire At Industry

Several Industry residents have signed a petition to attend a meeting of the Borough Council Aug. 17 for an airing of the reasons Police Chief Earl J. Hineman resigned at last week's meeting.

Hineman, who had planned to resign since January, had agreed to stay on until Council can name a successor. His resignation was believed caused by political fault finding, friends said.

12,000 Idled At J&L Steel By Rail Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Some 300 trainmen struck the Monongahela connecting railroad today in a contract dispute idling 12,000 steel workers at the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. Pittsburgh works.

A 21-hour negotiating session failed to avert the strike.

The strikers are members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

A spokesman said the union is seeking a contract similar to that signed by the United Steelworkers and the basic steel industry.

The railroad serves two J&L plants in Pittsburgh. Company officials said the plant can't operate without the railroad, a subsidiary which hauls materials and supplies in the plants.

About 700 other railroad employes were idled by the strike.

A spokesman for the railroad said a package deal equivalent to the basic steel settlement already has been offered to the trainmen. The brotherhood, however, says the offer falls short of the steel settlement.

Exact issues in the dispute have not been made public.

Technical Problems Delay Satellite Firing

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Technical problems with the Thor-Delta carrier rocket caused a second postponement early today in an attempt to launch a 100-foot balloon communications satellites into orbit.

Another launching attempt will be made Friday.

Negroes Attack Discrimination In Golf Circles

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Negro golfers, irked at a Park Department refusal to allow a Negro tournament at its usual date this summer, say there is discrimination against Negroes in golfing circles.

James A. Keyes, a Democratic alderman and a member of the Knickerbockers Golfers Club, a Negro group, said Tuesday the group's annual tournament at the municipal course, scheduled during the last 14 years for the last Sunday in July, was not permitted this year.

The Park Department, Keyes said, stated no tournament could be held on weekends or holidays between Memorial Day and Labor Day to prevent inconvenience to regular players.

But, Keyes protested, the New Haven Municipal Golf Assn., an all-white group, has scheduled a tournament for Saturday, Aug. 20.

Park Director James E. Coogan explained the municipal group's tournament was permitted on condition the players did not reserve tees. With that stipulation the tournament would not violate the park board ruling, he said.

City Man Asks $75,000 In Furnace Explosion

Roy Young of Shadyside Ave., East Liverpool, filed suit for $75,000 in Common Pleas Court Tuesday, claiming personal injuries in the explosion of a furnace near Columbiana because an oil firm allegedly filled the tank with 275 gallons of high octane gasoline instead of fuel oil.

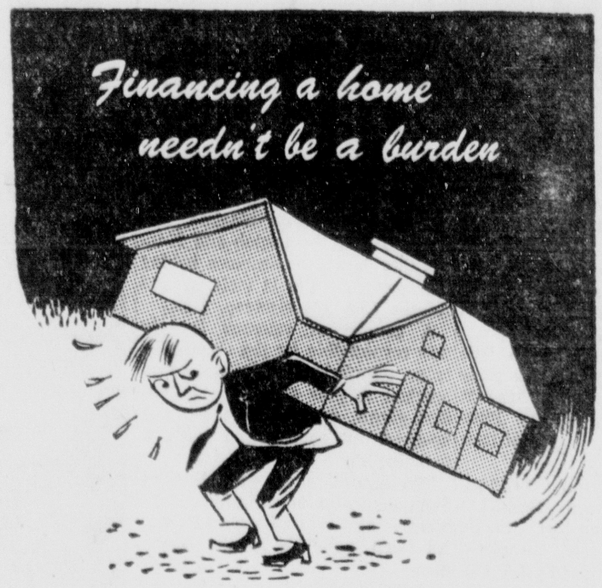

Young's petition says he was called to the home of Carl Weyandt of Columbiana R. D. 1 Jan. 30, 1959, to check malfunctioning of the furnace and it exploded, causing injuries and damaging his hearing.

Defendants are the A. & M. Oil Co., Lawrence C. McVay, J. C. Brownlee and Robert A. Manchester II, all of Columbiana.

Mizell Chalks Up 5th Straight As Pirates Down Cubs, 7-1

Bucs Lead By 5; Cards 2nd Place

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Back in 1952 the sports writers covering the major league spring camps voted a tall, raw-boned youngster named Wilmer Mizell the most likely to succeed.

He started this season with an indifferent lifetime record of 68 victories against 67 defeats.

The Cardinals thought so little of him after he had won one game and lost three that last May 28 they swapped him to the Pittsburgh Pirates for a couple of their farmhands.

Since joining the pennant-hungry Pirates Vinegar Bend has won eight games and lost two. He has won five in a row, completed four straight, and until the Chicago Cubs pushed a run across against him in the fifth inning Tuesday night he had pitched 30 1-3 scoreless innings.

He won the game, 7-1, allowing only five hits, and the Bucs retained their five-game lead in the National League race.

The cast of characters in the runnerup spot switched, though. Milwaukee, which had been in second place, lost to the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-2 while the erstwhile third-place Cardinals were taking a doubleheader from the Phillies 5-4 and 6-0 to leap frog into second. San Francisco was rained out at Cincinnati.

In the American League the New York Yankees evened their series with the Chicago White Sox by taking the second of three games, 7-4; Cleveland beat Boston, 6-3; Baltimore blanked Detroit 3-0 and Washington and Kansas City slpit, the Senators taking the opener, 3-1 in 12 innings, and Kansas City the nightcap, 8-3.

A couple of veterans largely was responsible for the Cardinals' twin triumphs. Stan Musial cracked a pair of doubles in the first game, scored each time, and knocked in another run with a sacrifice fly.

The second game was all Curt Simmons, who turned in his fourth victory against two defeats, and his third over his former teammates.

Lindy McDaniel, was credited with his ninth victory in 12 decisions in the first game.

Johnny Podres, on the mound for Los Angeles, had everything under control for eight innings. He had fanned 10, walked only two, and had allowed the Braves only five hits.

Then the roof started to sag. Eddie Mathews opened the ninth with his 24th home run. Podres got the next two batters, but Billy Bruton doubled and Johnny Logan and Felix Mantilla singled and the Dodger lead was cut to one run. Larry Sherry came in to get the third out and preserve Podres' 10th victory.

PITCHER JOHNNY KUCKS of the Athletics got back to first safely on an attempted pickoff play in Tuesday night's game between Kansas City and Washington at Kansas City. First baseman Harmon Killebrew attempts to make the tag. (UPI Telephoto)

Reds-Giants 'Washed Out'

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds and San Francisco Giants would have had to use water wings to play the second game of their series Tuesday night.

The three-hour storm which hit Cincinnati washed out the tilt and the rain was so heavy the idle players couldn't even scatter to their homes, hotels or a movie. They couldn't get out of Crosley Field.

Reds' officials announced immediately the game would be played Friday, Sept. 9, as part of a twi-night doubleheader.

The postponement, coming so early in the week, didn't figure to help the Cincinnati pitching staff face its busy weekend ahead. There are doubleheaders scheduled for both Sunday and Monday.

The rainout apparently meant a delay in giving Cincinnati fans their first look at youthful Jim Maloney. Manager Fred Hutchinson indicated he'd start Bob Purkey tonight. He originally had planned to use Purkey Tuesday night and come back with either Maloney or Cal McLish tonight.

Maloney, one of the recent Red-leg recalls, has made two starts but both have been on the road. He lost both encounters but has received rave notices for his pitching aplomb and his fast ball.

Vitamin Not Pep Pill, Olympics Committee Rules

NEW YORK (AP) — The case of the suspected pep pills was closed today by the U.S. Olympic Committee.

An analysis of a pill found in the women's locker room during the Olympic trials at Detroit last week was found to be a vitamin pill.

"It was an ordinary pill used to make up a deficiency in iron, and could be bought in any drug store without a prescription," said Jim Simms, secretary-treasurer of the AAU.

Last Sunday, Weikko Ruuska, one of whose daughters, Dylvia, made the team, charged that the women were taking pep pills. The charge brought denials from coaches and officials.

Barbara Hartt, Mrs. Weese Split Golfing Honors

Barbara Hartt and Mrs. Gordon Weese shared low gross honors in the 18-hole selective nine tourney played Tuesday at the East Liverpool Country Club. Miss Hartt carded a 46-47—93 and Mrs. Weese 48-45—93.

Mrs. Robert Patterson's 33 won the low net event, and Mrs. Weese took the putting tourney with 30.

In the second division match play against par event, Mrs. R. V. Beatty with 53 won low gross honors while Mrs. George Mueller and Mrs. R. J. Kinsey each finished 3 up to tie for low net. Mrs. W. J. Horger won the putting with 15.

'Olympic Period' Opens In Rome Officially

ROME (AP) —The 17th modern Olympic Games today officially came to the city of Rome.

The "Olympic period" — as formally designated by city officials — started without fanfare but with lots of flags.

About 8,000 of them fluttered over the city's buildings. Corps of interpreters moved into the hospitals to overcome possible language barriers. Four hundred hostesses went to work at the various Olympic stadiums and offices. Floodlights were switched on in the heart of Rome.

The games will not open until Aug. 25. But for the Romans' money, Olympic time is now officially here.

West Virginia-Virginia All-Stars Open Practice

BLUEFIELD (AP) — Practice started today for the second Virginia-West Virginia All-Star Football Game.

Mountain State Coach Don Williams is facing the affair with mixed feelings.

While looking for West Virginia's second win, he will be hoping for good performances by four members of the Old Dominion team who will be enrolling this fall at Concord College, where Williams is head football coach.

The Virginians will play under the coaching of Conley Snidow, coach at Wefford College, Spartanburg, S. C. His team absorbed a 7-0 licking in last year's inaugural.

The Virginia boys Williams will be watching closely are backs Don Yontz of Saltville, William Woodwyard of Pearisburg, and Doug Frazier and Ron Taber, both of Narrows.

In Virginia's East-West all star game last week, Yontz was instrumental in the West win, as his pass interceptions spoiled the East passing attack, and his punt returns kept the West on the offensive.

Yesterday, Williams added two more Concord-bound backs to his West Virginia squad, bringing to nine the number of Mountain Staters who will play for Williams this fall.

Latest additions were halfback Wayne Hicks of Welch and fullback John Harrah of Charleston Stonewall Jackson. Also joining the West Virginia team will be Jim Jarrett, an all-state end from Stonewall Jackson.

Virginia's roster now shows 27 names; the West Virginia squad numbers 29.

Seven first team all - staters can now be counted on both teams, with numerous second team and all area choices.

Williams predicts an even match, giving Virginia the backfield edge, but says "We've got the line."

Practice taking place on separate fields on the Concord Campus.

Officials are predicting a crowd of some 8,000, to match the turnout last year.

An added feature this time will be the halftime appearance of "Miss West Virginia," Beth Hoback. Her attendance at the game will highlight "Beth Hoback Day" in Bluefield, proclaimed for Aug. 19 by the City's Board of Directors.

Billy Martin's Penalties To Stand In Punch Case

CINCINNATI (AP)—The bone-breaking punch that Cincinnati Reds' second baseman Billy Martin gave pitcher Jim Brewer of the Chicago Cubs last Thursday still is going to cost him $500.

Martin has served out the five-day suspension that went with the fine.

National League President Warren C. Giles announced Tuesday night after a hearing requested by Martin that the penalties would stand. He said he heard nothing at the hearing that would cause him to change his mind about the fine and suspension.

A subdued Martin said he would abide by the decision but indicated he felt he had made his point.

"The thing I wanted to point out," he said, "was that I actually thought Brewer was coming over to fight. I'll never change my mind on that."

At the time of the incident, Martin claimed Brewer had thrown a pitch at his head. The ball nicked Martin's bat and caromed off his helmet. On the next pitch, Martin's bat flew out of his hands toward the mound.

He went out to pick it up, then suddenly swung on Brewer after they had exchanged words.

The punch broke an orbital bone under the right eye. Brewer is expected to be out of action for at least a month.

In a Chicago hospital, Brewer said "I think it (the fine and suspension) is strong enough but I'm glad it wasn't lifted."

2 17-Year-Olds Steal Show In Eastern Grass Net Event

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — A pair of 17-year olds stole the spotlight Tuesday in the second round of the Eastern Grass Court Tennis Championships at Orange Lawn Tennis Club.

Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., and Carole Caldwell of Tampa, Fla., ousted the top two women in the domestic draw, Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Janet Hopps of Seattle respectively. Miss Richey won, 6-3, 4-6, 7-5 and Miss Caldwell came through 6-3, 7-5.

Those were the high spots of a day in which the men's matches followed form throughout.

The Richey-Caldwell explosions left only Karen Hantze of San Diego among the women's domestic seeds. And Karen, 17, was a 6-3, 6-3 winner over Gwyneth Thomas of Cleveland Tuesday.

In the men's activities, Rod Laver, Aussie champ and top seed, took an 8-6, 6-3 decision from John Hammill of South Africa. Laver has won two straight tournaments with Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn as his final opponent. Holmberg, on his way to their third straight meeting, polished off Bill Hoogs Jr., Berkeley, Calif. by 6-1, 6-3.

Bob Mark, third seeded Aussie, pulled out a 9-7, 6-3 battle over Martin Riessen, Hinsdale, Ill.

7 Break Par In Opening Of Ohio Publinx Tourney

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The 27th Ohio Public Links Golf Championship headed into its second round today with seven par - breakers leading the way.

A host of tournament-tested talent was on the heels of the leaders and the lowest scoring championship race in years was in prospect.

Out front at the end of the first 18 were 40-year-old Vic Banish, a precision grinder in a motor plant at Warren, and 35-year-old James Valardo, a tool crib attendant from Cleveland. Each scored a 69, three under par for Chippewa Country Club's 6,391-yard par 72 layout.

Next, with a 70, was 22-year-old Billy Santor of Youngstown, a senior at Ohio University. Another stroke back at 71 were former champion Len Pietras of Toledo, 17-year-old Tom Weiskopf Jr., of Maple Heights, the state Jaycee champion; Anthony J. Popp, 23-year-old steel plant worker from Steubenville, and 19-year-old Joe Campana Jr., of Warren, a Youngstown University student.

Among seven who matched par were defending champion Art Todd of Columbus and former winner Don Nist Jr., state representative from Canton.

After today's 18-hole round the field will be cut to the low 60 and ties and indications were a score of 151 or 152 would be necessary to escape the cutoff.

The huge field of 265, greatest ever in the public course contest, finished the first round long after sundown, but 106 of them fired 78 or better over the three-infested layout on which a meandering stream menaces 13 holes.

James A. Rhodes, state auditor and former president of the Ohio Public Links Golf Association, addressed the fee course contingent at the annual banquet Tuesday night.

Fritz Howell, Ohio sports editor for The Associated Press, was awarded a trophy by the association for "long service and devotion" to Ohio public links golf.

Larsen Of World Series Fame Wins First Since June, 1959

Beats Nats; Yankees Top Chisox, 7-4

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Remember Don Larsen? He's the fellow who pitched the only perfect World Series game in history. Did it for the New York Yankees on a bright October afternoon in 1956. Beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 2-0.

He hung around with the Yankees through the 1959 season, in which he won six games and lost seven, but the New York club finally gave up on him. They sent him to Kansas City in a seven-player deal in December 1959.

He had lost his last six games with the Yankees in 1959, and with Kansas City he was no better, so he was sent down to the minors on July 8 this year. The A's brought him back July 29.

But he had run up six more major league defeats for an even dozen straight until Tuesday night, when he defeated Washington, 8-3, in the second game of a doubleheader. It was the first game he had won since he beat Detroit for the Yankees June 13, 1959. He tired after 7 1-3 innings and was relieved by Ken Johnson.

The Senators had taken the first game 3-1 in 12 innings, as the league-leading Yankees were stopping the White Sox 7-4, the Baltimore Orioles were blanking Detroit 3-0 and Cleveland was downing Boston 6-3.

In the National League St. Louis took two from the Phillies, 5-4 and 6-0, Pittsburgh beat the Chicago Cubs 7-1 and Los Angeles edged the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2. San Francisco and Cincinnati were rained out.

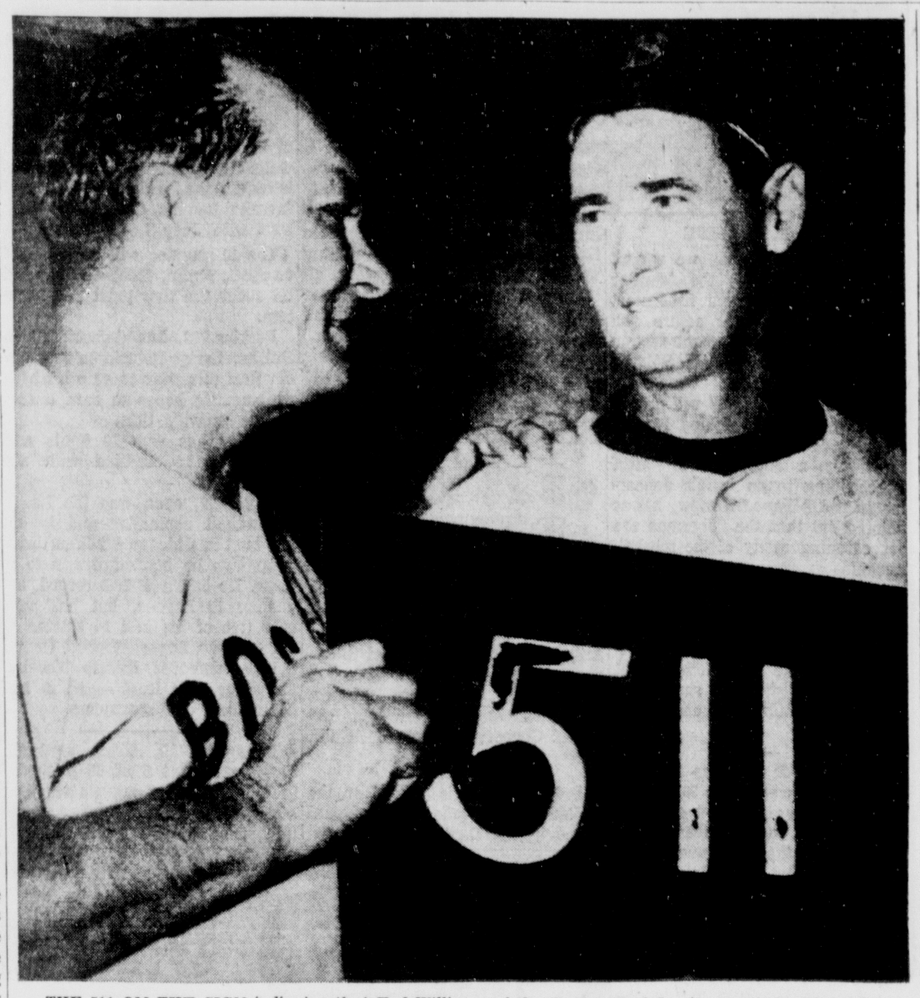

The Yankees increased their lead to a game and a half by squaring their series with the White Sox when rain came an inning too late to help the Chicagoans.

Errors by catcher Joe Ginsberg, first baseman Roy Sievers, and a botched up play by second baseman Nellie Fox ruined what might have been a fine relief job by pitcher Gerry Staley.

The Baltimore Orioles, who have been playing fine ball of late, slipped into a tie for second place with the White Sox, thanks to a fine four-hit job by young Chuck Estrada. It was his 12th victory in 18 decisions. Brooks Robinson got him all the runs with his 11th home run with two on in fourth.

Frank Lary, Tiger starter, yielded only three hits in the eight innings he worked. He suffered his 11th defeat against 10 victories. The game was played in a pelting rain.

Ted Williams provided the big news as the Red Sox bowed to the Indians. The 41-year-old Red Sox slugger rapped his 19th home run of the season and the 511th of his career, putting him in a tie for third place with Mel Ott on the all-time home run list.

THE 511 ON THE SIGN indicates that Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox is now tied with Mel Ott, famed member of the one-time New York Giants, in the all-time home run derby. Each has 511, ranking them third in the race. Ted slammed his latest round-tripper Tuesday night at Cleveland during the Red Sox-Indians game. Manager Mike Higgins of the Sox is helping hold the sign. (UPI Telephoto)

Indians Take 6-3 Decision

Williams Eyes 3rd Place On All-Time Homer List

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ted Williams, who keeps on rolling along despite his 41 years, has a chance tonight to take over undisputed possession of third place among the all-time home run hitters.

The Boston Red Sox left fielder Tuesday night clouted the 511th homer of his major league career in the fifth inning of the opener of a three-game series with the Cleveland Indians. That tied him with Mel Ott for third on the all-time list behind Babe Ruth and Jimmy Foxx.

Williams' smash over the right field fence with two out and the bases bare was his 19th home run of the season. It tied the score at 3-3, but the Indians, sparked by two-run homers by Tito Francona and Vic Power, took a 6-3 decision.

It was against the Indians here on June 17 that the Splendid Splinter joined the charmed circle by hitting the 500th homer of his career. On that occasion he wore a wide grin as he circled the bases, but Tuesday night he had a determined expression as he made the same trip.

His latest clout was off Jim Perry, a 24-year-old right-hander, who is the winningest pitcher in the American League with 14 victories against five defeats.

Perry gave up seven hits, struck out four batters and walked five in going the distance.

The loser was Billy Monbouquette, the first of three Boston pitchers, who now has a 12-9 record.

The victory, which snapped a three-game losing streak for the Indians, was their second under Manager Jimmie Dykes and both were turned in by Perry. The young right-hander also has gained four of the Tribe's last six victories and five of their last nine.

Power's homer was a line drive that struck the right field fence, then struck right fielder Lou Clinton on the foot and bounced over the barrier. Umpire Al Smith ruled it was a home run because the ball did not touch the ground. The Red Sox argued that it did.

Power also drove in a run with a standup double to right field. It scored John Temple, who led off the seventh inning with a single and advanced to second on a sacrifice.

Barry Latman (1-2) will pitch for the Indians tonight. He will be opposed by Earl Wilson (1-0), recently recalled by the Red Sox.

The Indians Tuesday purchased Joe Morgan, a 29-year-old third baseman, in a waiver deal with the Philadelphia Phillies. He batted .134 in 25 games for the Phillies.

To make room for Morgan on the roster, the Indians sold outfielder Chuck Tanner to Toronto of the International League. Used mainly as a pinch-hitter by the Tribe, Tanner batted .280 in 21 games.

Steubenville, Bridgeport Teams In Third Round

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Ten teams went into the third round of the double-elimination Ohio American Legion baseball tournament today.

At least three of them would fall by the wayside during the day's competition, joining the four ousted Tuesday.

In the morning games, Elyria battled Piqua, Columbus met Findlay, and Akron went against Cleveland. All these teams already have lost one game, and one more loss will eliminate them from competition. In the afternoon, the undefeated teams (all 2-0) go against each other, Cincinnati facing Steubenville and Lima meeting Bridgeport.

Tuesday, defending champion Columbus Scioto Post lost its first game of the tournament at the hands of five-time national champion Cincinnati Bentley Post 8-5. For the first six innings, Columbus failed to get a hit. It finally broke Cincinnati pitcher Jim Hassett's spell in the seventh when loser Joe Arganbright singled. Columbus then rallied for five runs in the eighth, but Cincinnati had tallied one in the first, five in the second and two in the fourth.

In the other afternoon games, Lima handed Findlay its first loss 7-3, Bridgeport downed Cleveland 5-4, and Steubenville eliminated Portsmouth 2-1.

Lima scored three of its runs in the first inning on two walks and singles by MacArthur Wagner, John Provost and Jim Tobin. Wagner had four hits in the game. Steve Shuman was the winning pitcher and Roy Wise the loser.

Bridgeport scored its two winning runs in the top of the ninth on consecutive singles by Tom Harris, Bob Widmar, Joe Gorza and Bill Knight and a walk to Chuck Coss. Cleveland's last inning rally fell one short.

Steubenville got both its runs in the third to eliminate Portsmouth. Gerry France got two of Steubenville's three hits. Craig Brant hit a double and a single for Portsmouth. John Gray was the pitching winner, and Harry Ruark lost.

In the morning, three teams were knocked out of the trophy chase. Akron beat Lancaster 8-6, Elyria defeated Newark 4-3 and Piqua downed Ashtabula 6-5.

Ted Williams' Formula —Nap Before Games

CLEVELAND (AP) — Opposing pitchers have a new hope in their continuing battle with Ted Williams—maybe some day he'll over sleep.

Nothing else seems to stop Boston's Splendid Splinter, whose formula to combat advancing age includes an afternoon nap before every night game.

Tuesday night he was wide awake, blasting the 511th home run of his career to move into a tie with Mel Ott for third place on the all-time list. Only Babe Ruth (714) and Jimmy Foxx (534) have hit more.

The clout—Ted's 19th of the year—sailed over the right field fence with nobody on in the fifth inning. The victim was Jim Perry, winningest pitcher in the American League, who went on to defeat the Red Sox, 6-3, for his 14th victory in 19 decisions.

"I hit the h--- off that ball," Williams said.

"I'll keep going unless I collapse. I gave the ball to (trainer) Jack Fadden to keep for me. No, it's not going to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. I'm going to a big dinner when we get back home and I'm sure I can auction this off for $1,000 for the Jimmy Fund (children's cancer research fund)."

Williams, who will be 42 on Aug. 30, has a ready explanation for his napping routine.

"As you get older, you get pepless in the late innings of night games," he says. "I learned I can retain my sharpness at night by taking an hour or more of sleep in the afternoon."

Browns Testing Rookie Murray At Slot End Position

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—Fred Murphy, a rookie from Georgia Tech, is being given a test at the slot end by the Cleveland Browns while Rich Kreitling limps on a tender ankle.

Murphy, who stands 6-3 and weighs 205 pounds, made a couple of good catches and gave a good over-all performance as the lone man in the slot during Monday's practice. He also did most of the slot running Tuesday.

Kreitling is expected to assume at least part of the load in the exhibition game in Detroit against the Lions Saturday night. He suffered a sprained ankle in last Saturday's scrimmage.

The squad was cut to 41 Tuesday with the release of halfbacks Homer Floyd and Jack Hanlon, guard Larry Baker and end Bill Almashy.

Bobby Corle, a former Bedford, Pa., High School wrestling champion at 95 pounds, led Pimlico's jockeys last spring with 13 winners in 12 days.

Cook Has Sights Set On Rifle Title

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP)—Arthur Cook of Adelphia, Md., a U.S. Air Force Reserve captain, dropped but one point in the four matches fired with telescopic sights Tuesday and practically assured himself of the 1960 national small bore prone rifle championship. The competition ends today with the final 160 rounds.

In the 160 rounds fired Tuesday, Cook had 159 bull's-eyes and put one shot in the 9 ring for a score of 1,599 points out of a possible 1,600. That gave him a grand aggregate score of 4,793 out of a possible 4,800 points, five points ahead of his nearest rival.

Two sisters from Allen Park, Mich., were in a close race for the women's crown. Lenore Jensen, 19, the defending champion, passed her sister, Marianne (Candy) Jensen, by two points Tuesday to go ahead 4,773 to 4,771. Monday night the 15-year-old Candy led by one point.

All-Stars' Beach May Be Surprise For Colts Friday Night

Break-Away Runner Best Of Collegians

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — If the All-Stars have a surprise to tantalize the seasoned Baltimore Colts Friday night, it may be in the person of Walter Beach.

Beach probably is the best break-away runner Head Coach Otto Graham has — and speed is essential if the graduated collegians hope to score.

Graham likes to hark back to the 1958 game, his first as All-Star coach. His team ran up the biggest score in the mid-summer football series by trimming the Detroit Lions 35-19. Fleet Bob Mitchell of Illinois took two flat passes from Michigan State's Jim Ninowski for touchdown runs of 84 and 18 yards to insure the All-Star victory.

But the 25-year-old Beach may be close to the answer.

Beach, who will play pro football for the Toronto Argonauts, gained 2,968 yards rushing and scored 43 touchdowns in his varsity career at Central Michigan. And, as a member of the track team, the 180-pounder tied the school record for 100 yards in :09.7. Shoot him some flat passes and he may pull a Mitchell.

Beach is only one of four fast halfbacks who also rank as fine pass receivers. The others are Ed Kovac of Cincinnati, Dick Bass of College of Pacific and Prentice Gautt of Oklahoma.

Captain for the All-Stars on offense will be Mike McGee, 230-pound guard from Duke. Captain on defense will be Jim Houston, 220-pound end from Ohio State.

The starting quarterback is uncertain. Graham can select from George Izo of Notre Dame, Pete Hall of Marquette and Don Meredith of Southern Methodist — all exceptional passers.

The game in Soldier Field will be televised and broadcast via APC beginning at 9 p.m. EST.

The Colts are rated an 18-point favorite.

THERE'S NOTHING UNUSUAL about British Olympic team hopeful Bruce Tulloh except that he runs three-mile races in his bare feet. Despite this, Tulloh, 24, turned in a British mark of 13 minutes, 17.2 seconds for the event this year, the fifth fastest three miles ever run—with or without shoes. (UPI Telephoto)

Los Angeles Physician Eyes Racing Car Record Thursday

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (AP) — The somewhat paunchy physician said quietly: "I'm not thinking about fear...but I know there is a certain element of chance."

You might think Dr. Nathan Ostich, a 50-year-old Los Angeles general practitioner, was preparing for a major operation.

In a way, he was.

The physician's fingers carefully removed a screw from a bolt in the "Flying Caduceus," his 8,930 horsepower, red and black, missile-nosed racer.

But he wasn't in an operating room. He was under a canopy on the blistering Salt Flats of western Utah where he hopes Thursday to drive a racing car faster than any man on earth—about 500 miles an hour.

The doctor spent two days on the flats checking his car before he made a couple of test runs at about 140 m.p.h. Tuesday.

The jet-engine racer's design is radical. The nose is patterened after a missile cone. The body is round and the four-foot high wheels and tired uncovered to eliminate wind resistance.

"The wheels, each carved out of a 750-pound block of aluminum, will act like gyros," said the physician. "We hope they will keep the car straight. At that high speed you can't turn the car if it goes into a skid. That's why we have the parachutes.

"If something goes wrong at 500 miles an hour and I have to pop the chute, I'll get 1½ Gs of deceleration (9,000 pounds pressure on his 5-9½, 193 lb body). Then when the second chute goes, I'll get another Gs (5,000 to 6,000 pounds)."

Ewbank Sees Gain, Winning Or Losing

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Baltimore Colts believes his team will gain whether it wins or loses to the College All-Stars Friday night.

The coach of the world champion Colts said Tuesday, "We have prestige to gain and the loss of face if we lose. But if we lose, not all is lost.

"It might be the salvation of our club," Ewbank said, "the kind of tonic it would need to realize that football games are won on the field — not with reputations — for after all our goal is a third championship."

"But I think our squad has been through that up and down period enough to avoid the down feeling. Let's hope so, anyway," Ewbank said.

Houston, McGee Co-Captains Of All-Star Squad

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Two rugged linemen, Jim Houston of Ohio State and Mike McGee of Duke, have been elected by their College All-Star mates as co-captains for Friday night's game with the Baltimore Colts.

Houston, 220-pound Buckeye end, will captain the defensive unit, while McGee, 230-pound guard, will lead the offensive team.

Houston, a consistent placekicker, also may win the job of kicking off for the All-Stars.

Both McGee and Houston were captains of their college teams. Houston, from Massillon, Ohio, has signed with the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League. McGee, from Elizabeth City, N. C. will play with the St. Louis Cardinals of the NFL.

Commented All-Star coach Otto Graham: "Both of these boys are among the hardest workers in camp and are leader on the field."

Ohio Girls Softball Title At Stake Today

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Dayton National Cash Register takes on Columbus Jan Ross today for the championship of the Ohio Girls Double Elimination Softball Tournament.

Jan Ross advanced to the finals Tuesday by beating Wooster 6-3 in eight innings, then going on to down Oberlin 3-1 in the regulation seven frames.

Dayton, with an undefeated record in the tournament, needs only win one game to earn the crown. If Jan Ross wins the first game, a second will be played to determine the champion.

Dayton beat the Columbus team 3-1 earlier in the competition.

Jockey Sam Boulmetis sold papers at the gates of Pimlico race track in Baltimore when he was a youngster.

Ken Silvestri, coach of the Philadelphia Phillies, caught for the White Sox, Yankees and Phils.

Five present Yankee pitchers came up to the big leagues with other teams.

U.S. Olympic Quint, Pipers Clash Tonight

MORGANTOWN (AP) — Former West Virginia University players galore will appear at Mountaineer Field House tonight when the United States Olympic basketball team plays the Industrial League Cleveland Pipers.

West Virginia University athletic officials said the game is a near sellout. Gate receipts of more than $15,000 are expected from the sale of more than 6,000 tickets.

Twice All - America Jerry West will be the biggest drawing attraction here. West was a brilliant performer three seasons for nationally ranked Mountaineer team, ending last campaign.

The Pipers beat the Olympians Saturday night in Canton, Ohio, 101-96, in an overtime period. This will be the Olympic squad's second exhibition game on the road to the Rome international competition.

The Olympians will be quartered tonight in Pittsburgh. They play next in Cincinnati Saturday night.

Besides West, three other 1960 All-America selections will play for the Olympic team — Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati, Darrall Imhoff of California and Jerry Lucas of Ohio State.

Other collegians on the Olympic team are Purdue's Terry Dischinger, Walt Bellamy of Indiana and Jay Arnett of Texas.

Three former West Virginia performers, all of whom played on teams with West, are with the Pipers. They are last season's co-captain, Willie Akers of Mullens, Marvin (Buck) Belyard and 6-10 Lloyd Sharrar.

The remaining Olympians are National Industrial League standouts Bob Beezer and Al Kelley from Peoria and Burdie Halderson of Bartlesville; and Adrian Smith, former Kentucky player who made the Armed Forces All-Star team.

Siege Of Mumps Fails To Harm Toronto's Star

By The Associated Press

A siege of the mumps didn't harm Toronto rightfielder Jim King.

He returned to the Leafs' lineup Tuesday night and promptly helped beat the Miami Marlins in both ends of an International League doubleheader 4-2 and 10-9. His single broke a 2-2 tie in the sixth inning of the opener. In the nightcap he hit a pinch hit grand slam homer in the sixth inning and later drove in the tying runs in a wild ninth inning rally.

Columbus broke an eight-game losing string at the hands of the Rochester Red Wings with a 5-1, 11-inning victory, while Jersey City and Montreal split a doubleheader. The Reds won 9-6, then lost 1-0. Richmond beat Buffalo for the eighth straight time, 3-1.

Roman Mejias' single off reliever Bob Tiefenauer scored the first two runs in Columbus' 11th inning rally and Charlie Brockell's double, after a half hour rain delay, off reliever Tom Hurd got the final two. Jim Umbricht won, giving seven hits, including a homer to Leon Wagner. Willard Schmidt pitched hitless ball for the first 6 2-2 innings for the Red Wings.

Coach Luman Harris of the Baltimore Orioles compiled a 35-63 major league record as a pitcher.

"We want walleyes, we want walleyes!" That is the familiar chant of all the area fishermen. Who doesn't? I will assure you that the fish management section of the Ohio Division of Wildlife wants walleyes too.

Alliance City Council will pass a resolution Aug. 15 asking for the stocking of walleyes in Deer Creek Reservoir, a small body of water.

According to an article appearing in the Alliance Review, it was pointed out that the fishermen are not catching many of the muskellunge.

And here is the payoff — the fishermen are unable to land the muskies on spinning outfits. I will agree a spinning outfit with a 6-pound test line is something that only expert fishermen should use when big fighting fish are prevalent.

IF WE HAD muskies in Lake Guilford that went up to 30 pounds, I would assure you that our fishermen would shed no tears about the big one that got away while using a spinning outfit. Instead you would see our fishermen using the proper equipment that the "tackle-busters" could not "bust".

To me, complaining about the fish being too big for the spinners is unbelievable. Puts me in the mind of a man saying I don't want all that money, it is too heavy to carry home. In that case heavier equipment to haul the money would be employed by our sportsmen even if it was a wheelbarrow.

FOR THE PAST two years the fish management section has done about everything possible to introduce muskies in Lake Guilford, yet, none has shown up.

More will be stocked this year. Both walleye fry and mature walleyes have been stocked in Guilford, but very few of the mature fish have been caught and none of the 10- or 12-inch walleyes have been taken by the fishermen that anyone can prove. Some mature walleyes are still swimming around in the lake as the test netting has proven. Don't know what happened to the stocked fry.

In the city of Alliance wants to get rid of the muskies in Deer Creek, and they can possibly be removed, I am sure my cheering section will sound off, "We want the muskies!"

Walleyes were stocked in the Salem Reservoir a few years ago, but I will wager a wooden nickle that none exist in that body of water today.

Not only that, but as things stand, judging from the "No Trespassing" signs, you are not allowed to fish there. There is no fun fishing where you are not allowed, although a few fellows have told me they have caught some beautiful bass and bluegills out of there.

I would certainly like to see this body of water opened for public fishing along the same lines that were proposed by the Ohio Division of Wildlife a few years ago.

Perkins Solid 2-To-1 Choice

CHICAGO (AP—Eddie Perkins of Chicago, No. 4 ranked lightweight contender by the National Boxing Assn., rules a solid 2-1 favorite for his Chicago Stadium bout with Joey Lopse tonight.

The 10 rounder will be televised on ABC, 9 p.m. EST. Scoring will be under the five point must system.

Perkins, 23, has defeated Chico Rollins, Larry Boardman and Paola Rosi this year to gain his high ranking. He hopes to earn a shot at Joe Brown's title.

Perkins has won 19 fights and lost 6. He is credited with six kayoes.

Lopes, 29, once was the No. 1 lightweight contender and in his last bout in Chicago Stadium three years ago he battled Brown to a draw. He has a 49-20-5 record, including 19 kayoes, but has won only five of his last 14 starts.

This year Lopes stopped Henry Salcido, defeated Hilario Morales and drew with Rosi — all in his home town of Sacramento.

Manager Walt Alston used all 20 players, plus 6 of 10 pitchers, in the National League's winning effort in the second All-Star game this year.

Avitus (Vedie) Himsl, a Chicago Cub coach, is a native of Plevna, Mont. In 1942 he won 16 games for St. Paul.

Larsen Of World Series Fame Wins First Since June, 1959

Beats Nats; Yankees Top Chisox, 7-4

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Remember Don Larsen? He's the fellow who pitched the only perfect World Series game in history. Did it for the New York Yankees on a bright October afternoon in 1956. Beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 2-0.

He hung around with the Yankees through the 1959 season, in which he won six games and lost seven, but the New York club finally gave up on him. They sent him to Kansas City in a seven-player deal in December 1959.

He had lost his last six games with the Yankees in 1959, and with Kansas City he was no better, so he was sent down to the minors on July 8 this year. The A's brought him back July 29.

But he had run up six more major league defeats for an even dozen straight until Tuesday night, when he defeated Washington, 8-3, in the second game of a doubleheader. It was the first game he had won since he beat Detroit for the Yankees June 13, 1959. He tired after 7 1-3 innings and was relieved by Ken Johnson.

The Senators had taken the first game 3-1 in 12 innings, as the league-leading Yankees were stopping the White Sox 7-4, the Baltimore Orioles were blanking Detroit 3-0 and Cleveland was downing Boston 6-3.

In the National League St. Louis took two from the Phillies, 5-4 and 6-0, Pittsburgh beat the Chicago Cubs 7-1 and Los Angeles edged the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2. San Francisco and Cincinnati were rained out.

The Yankees increased their lead to a game and a half by squaring their series with the White Sox when rain came an inning too late to help the Chicagoans.

Errors by catcher Joe Ginsberg, first baseman Roy Sievers, and a botched up play by second baseman Nellie Fox ruined what might have been a fine relief job by pitcher Gerry Staley.

The Baltimore Orioles, who have been playing fine ball of late, slipped into a tie for second place with the White Sox, thanks to a fine four-hit job by young Chuck Estrada. It was his 12th victory in 18 decisions. Brooks Robinson got him all the runs with his 11th home run with two on in fourth.

Frank Lary, Tiger starter, yielded only three hits in the eight innings he worked. He suffered his 11th defeat against 10 victories. The game was played in a pelting rain.

Ted Williams provided the big news as the Red Sox bowed to the Indians. The 41-year-old Red Sox slugger rapped his 19th home run of the season and the 511th of his career, putting him in a tie for third place with Mel Ott on the all-time home run list.

THE 511 ON THE SIGN indicates that Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox is now tied with Mel Ott, famed member of the one-time New York Giants, in the all-time home run derby. Each has 511, ranking them third in the race. Ted slammed his latest round-tripper Tuesday night at Cleveland during the Red Sox-Indians game. Indians Take 6-3 Decision

Williams Eyes 3rd Place On All-Time Homer List

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ted Williams, who keeps on rolling along despite his 41 years, has a chance tonight to take over undisputed possession of third place among the all-time home run hitters.

The Boston Red Sox left fielder Tuesday night clouted the 511th homer of his major league career in the fifth inning of the opener of a three-game series with the Cleveland Indians. That tied him with Mel Ott for third on the all-time list behind Babe Ruth and Jimmy Foxx.

Williams' smash over the right field fence with two out and the bases bare was his 19th home run of the season. It tied the score at 3-3, but the Indians, sparked by two-run homers by Tito Francona and Vic Power, took a 6-3 decision.

It was against the Indians here on June 17 that the Splendid Splinter joined the charmed circle by hitting the 500th homer of his career. On that occasion he wore a wide grin as he circled the bases, but Tuesday night he had a determined expression as he made the same trip.

His latest clout was off Jim Perry, a 24-year-old right-hander, who is the winningest pitcher in the American League with 14 victories against five defeats.

Perry gave up seven hits, struck out four batters and walked five in going the distance.

The loser was Billy Monbouquette, the first of three Boston pitchers, who now has a 12-9 record.

The victory, which snapped a three-game losing streak for the Indians, was their second under Manager Jimmie Dykes and both were turned in by Perry. The young right-hander also has gained four of the Tribe's last six victories and five of their last nine.

Power's homer was a line drive that struck the right field fence, then struck right fielder Lou Clinton on the foot and bounced over the barrier. Umpire Al Smith ruled it was a home run because the ball did not touch the ground. The Red Sox argued that it did.

Power also drove in a run with a standup double to right field. It scored John Temple, who led off the seventh inning with a single and advanced to second on a sacrifice.

Barry Latman (1-2) will pitch for the Indians tonight. He will be opposed by Earl Wilson (1-0), recently recalled by the Red Sox.

The Indians Tuesday purchased Joe Morgan, a 29-year-old third baseman, in a waiver deal with the Philadelphia Phillies. He batted .134 in 25 games for the Phillies.

To make room for Morgan on the roster, the Indians sold outfielder Chuck Tanner to Toronto of the International League. Used mainly as a pinch-hitter by the Tribe, Tanner batted .280 in 21 games.

Ted Williams' Formula —Nap Before Games

CLEVELAND (AP) — Opposing pitchers have a new hope in their continuing battle with Ted Williams—maybe some day he'll over sleep.

Nothing else seems to stop Boston's Splendid Splinter, whose formula to combat advancing age includes an afternoon nap before every night game.

Tuesday night he was wide awake, blasting the 511th home run of his career to move into a tie with Mel Ott for third place on the all-time list. Only Babe Ruth (714) and Jimmy Foxx (534) have hit more.

The clout—Ted's 19th of the year—sailed over the right field fence with nobody on in the fifth inning. The victim was Jim Perry, winningest pitcher in the American League, who went on to defeat the Red Sox, 6-3, for his 14th victory in 19 decisions.

"I hit the h--- off that ball," Williams said.

"I'll keep going unless I collapse. I gave the ball to (trainer) Jack Fadden to keep for me. No, it's not going to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. I'm going to a big dinner when we get back home and I'm sure I can auction this off for $1,000 for the Jimmy Fund (children's cancer research fund)."

Williams, who will be 42 on Aug. 30, has a ready explanation for his napping routine.

"As you get older, you get pepless in the late innings of night games," he says. "I learned I can retain my sharpness at night by taking an hour or more of sleep in the afternoon."

Browns Testing Rookie Murray At Slot End Position

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—Fred Murphy, a rookie from Georgia Tech, is being given a test at the slot end by the Cleveland Browns while Rich Kreitling limps on a tender ankle.

Murphy, who stands 6-3 and weighs 205 pounds, made a couple of good catches and gave a good over-all performance as the lone man in the slot during Monday's practice. He also did most of the slot running Tuesday.

Kreitling is expected to assume at least part of the load in the exhibition game in Detroit against the Lions Saturday night. He suffered a sprained ankle in last Saturday's scrimmage.

The squad was cut to 41 Tuesday with the release of halfbacks Homer Floyd and Jack Hanlon, guard Larry Baker and end Bill Almashy.

Floyd worked as a defensive back and flanker and Hanlon tried out as a running back.

Bobby Corle, a former Bedford, Pa., High School wrestling champion at 95 pounds, led Pimlico's jockeys last spring with 13 winners in 12 days.

Cook Has Sights Set On Rifle Title

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP)—Arthur Cook of Adelphia, Md., a U.S. Air Force Reserve captain, dropped but one point in the four matches fired with telescopic sights Tuesday and practically assured himself of the 1960 national small bore prone rifle championship. The competition ends today with the final 160 rounds.

In the 160 rounds fired Tuesday, Cook had 159 bull's-eyes and put one shot in the 9 ring for a score of 1,599 points out of a possible 1,600. That gave him a grand aggregate score of 4,793 out of a possible 4,800 points, five points ahead of his nearest rival.

Two sisters from Allen Park, Mich., were in a close race for the women's crown. Lenore Jensen, 19, the defending champion, passed her sister, Marianne (Candy) Jensen, by two points Tuesday to go ahead 4,773 to 4,771. Monday night the 15-year-old Candy led by one point.

Steubenville, Bridgeport Teams In Third Round

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Ten teams went into the third round of the double-elimination Ohio American Legion baseball tournament today.

At least three of them would fall by the wayside during the day's competition, joining the four ousted Tuesday.

In the morning games, Elyria battled Piqua, Columbus met Findlay, and Akron went against Cleveland. All these teams already have lost one game, and one more loss will eliminate them from competition. In the afternoon, the undefeated teams (all 2-0) go against each other, Cincinnati facing Steubenville and Lima meeting Bridgeport.

Tuesday, defending champion Columbus Scioto Post lost its first game of the tournament at the hands of five-time national champion Cincinnati Bentley Post 8-5. For the first six innings, Columbus failed to get a hit. It finally broke Cincinnati pitcher Jim Hassett's spell in the seventh when loser Joe Arganbright singled. Columbus then rallied for five runs in the eighth, but Cincinnati had tallied one in the first, five in the second and two in the fourth.

In the other afternoon games, Lima handed Findlay its first loss 7-3, Bridgeport downed Cleveland 5-4, and Steubenville eliminated Portsmouth 2-1.

Lima scored three of its runs in the first inning on two walks and singles by MacArthur Wagner, John Provost and Jim Tobin. Wagner had four hits in the game. Steve Shuman was the winning pitcher and Roy Wise the loser.

Bridgeport scored its two winning runs in the top of the ninth on consecutive singles by Tom Harris, Bob Widmar, Joe Gorza and Bill Knight and a walk to Chuck Coss. Cleveland's last inning rally fell one short.

Steubenville got both its runs in the third to eliminate Portsmouth. Gerry France got two of Steubenville's three hits. Craig Brant hit a double and a single for Portsmouth. John Gray was the pitching winner, and Harry Ruark lost.

In the morning, three teams were knocked out of the trophy chase. Akron beat Lancaster 8-6, Elyria defeated Newark 4-3 and Piqua downed Ashtabula 6-5.

Study Unit Hears Testimony

Speeches Favor, Opposed Death Sentence In State

CLEVELAND (AP) — A statement from a young assistant law professor at Western Reserve University that he is "scared to death that one day we are going to execute someone who is innocent," Tuesday highlighted testimony before the Ohio House-Senate Study Committee on Capital Punishment.

The statement was made by Prof. Lawrence Herman, who said when that happens "it will blow the top off capital punishment in Ohio."

Also speaking against the death penalty were Raymond Schultis, rehabilitation officer at the Cleveland Workhouse; Ronald M. Benjamin, president of the Cuyahoga County Bar Association, and Richard A. Schermerhorn, sociology professor at Western Reserve University.

"Every time we have another homicide in Ohio it is further evidence capital punishment did not deter a murder," Schultis said.

Benjamin argued that it is cheaper to keep a man in prison than to execute him. Quoting California figures, he said it would cost less than $300 a year to keep someone alive in prison.

"Administrative costs of maintaining a death house, including personnel, can run up to $150,000 in six years," he said.

"The real deterrent to crime is not the severity of punishment," he added, "but the certainty of apprehension."

Detective Inspector Richard Wagner, speaking in favor of capital punishment, said he believed firmly that executions were a deterrent to all crimes, not just murder.

Also speaking opposition to junking the electric chair was Police Chief Frank W. Story. He said every policeman he knew of was not too eager to have a human life taken and that wardens, who are supposed to preside at the executions, find it a constantly greater emotional burden.

"But we hope that an execution will stop many others from crimes that we don't even know about," he added.

B. F. Hormel Claimed Meat Packing Figure

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Benjamin Franklin Hormel, 83, brother of the man who founded the Hormel Meat Packing Co., died Tuesday.

Hormel retired as senior vice president of the meat company in 1941 and had been a resident of Los Angeles for almost 20 years.

16 Lives Lost, 12 In Traffic In Ohio On Tuesday

By The Associated Press

Sixteen lives were lost in Ohio accidents Tuesday, 12 of them in traffic mishaps.

In one of the worst accidents of the year, six members of a Detroit, Mich., family were fatally injured in the collision of a truck and an automobile on U. S. 30 west of Van Wert.

Three others, all of Steubenville, were killed in a similar accident on U.S. 40, east of Cambridge.

A young couple married two weeks ago were fatally hurt in a two-car collision on a Dayton street, and a student nurse lost her life in an accident near Hamilton.

Ohio also had one death in the crash of an airplane near Marietta, the drowning of a boy at Coshocton, the electrocution of a worker at Franklin and the asphyxiation of a Muskingum County youth by blackdamp gas from a mine at Roseville.

Plumber Suffocates

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Carbon dioxide fumes from dry ice he was using to freeze a pipe suffocated a plumber Tuesday night, police said. Frank Fabiny, 55, of nearby Lackawanna was found in a small inclosure under a house where he was working.

Chief justice of the Supreme Court is the highest appointive office in the United States.

Ousted Belgian Envoy To Congo In France

NICE, France (AP) — Baron Jean Van Den Bosch, expelled Belgian ambassador to the Congo, flew in to Nice today. His wife and daughter met him at the airport with a group of French and Belgian officials.

"I have nothing to say," Van Den Bosch told newsmen. "I have left my colleagues behind me and I don't want to make their task more difficult. I am keeping my opinions and my information for my government."

VFW To Hear Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars said today Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate, will address the group's 61st annual convention at Detroit Aug. 24. Nixon, a World War II Navy veteran, is a VFW member.

Patterson Launches Exhibitions In Sweden

STOCKHOLM (AP) — World Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson starts a 12-day exhibition tour of Sweden tonight amid rumors that the official signing for his third bout with Ingemar Johansson will take place in Rome just before the opening of the Olympic Games on Aug. 25.

Patterson admitted he had heard the idea and also conceded that he was going to Rome. But he said the contract signing has nothing to do with his visit to Rome.

The date of the bout at Los Angeles generally is expected to be between Oct. 31 and Nov. 15.

Should Steamroller GOP In Congress

Democrats Scale Barrier To Unity

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democrats have scaled their worst hurdle to party unity and now should be able—thanks to their overwhelming numbers in both houses—to steamroller the Republicans for the rest of this abbreviated session of Congress.

As the drama unfolds in these blazing August days on Capitol Hill—with the presidential campaign due to start in early September—here are some very important figures to keep in mind:

In the Senate the Democrats outnumber the Republicans 66-34 and in the House, where there are five vacancies, 280-152. Tuesday the Democrats showed what they could do to the Republicans when they chose to stick together.

They closed ranks with a bang—Northern Democrats and Southern Democrats together—to block a Republican attempt to force action on some civil rights bills.

Although earlier this year the Democratic-run Congress passed the second civil rights bill in the 20th century—the first was passed in 1957—President Eisenhower called for some civil rights legislation.

If the Democrats had permitted a Senate wrangle over civil rights, that would have ended any hope for real accomplishment in this Congress before it adjourns.

Eisenhower breakfasted with his Republican leaders in Congress and one of them—Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois—promptly returned to the Senate and offered a two-point civil rights measure.

Democrats from North and South—with four exceptions—joined to smash the Republican proposal. This would indicate they're prepared to do the same to any further attempt in this field.

To Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate, and his vice-presidential running mate, Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Northern Negro vote next November will be important. So will the white Southern vote.

But both took a stand against the Republican move on civil rights. The Republican civil rights action was an attempt to get the Senate so snarled up in a Southern Democratic filibuster against any new civil rights measures that it couldn't act on four measures which Kennedy considers of primary importance.

There are federal aid to education, housing, medical care for aged, and raising of the minimum wage.

The Democrats, because of their terrific majorities in both houses, have the numbers to pass the four measures mentioned by Kennedy since in both houses only a majority vote is necessary to pass a bill.

They face the possibility of one hitch — a veto by Eisenhower. Congress can repass a measure over a presidential veto only by a two-thirds vote in both houses and in both houses the Democrats lack a full two-thirds of the membership.

In this highly steamed-up election Eisenhower and his advisers will have to think twice before vetoing a measure which has broad popular appeal, such as the four measures listed by Kennedy.

There is an opposite side to this coin, very gruesome for the Democrats to contemplate.

If, with their huge majorities, they do not pass the kind of legislation urged by Kennedy, the Republicans can ask the voters: why give control of Congress to the Democrats again in November if when they outnumber us so one-sidedly as they do now they still can't agree long enough among themselves to do something?

'Outsiders' Among 11 Treated At Hospital After Accidents

A Youngstown Boy Scout, a Louisiana youth and a Tiltonsville man were among 11 youngsters and adults treated at City Hospital Tuesday for injuries suffered in separate mishaps.

Robert Taylor, 24, of Tiltonsville, employe of Siff's Shoe Store, suffered a laceration of a finger in a fall on a knife.

Steve Taylor, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Taylor of Lake Charles, La., was treated for a cut of the head suffered on a sign post.

Harry McManus, 13, of Youngstown suffered a cut of the knee in a fall from a bicycle on Prucevale Rd. while on a trip with a Boy Scout troop.

Jacquelyn Morton, 8, of Weirton was treated for a wound of the forearm received when bitten by a puppy.

Mrs. Ruth Schmitt of Gaston Pl. suffered a possible fracture of the right foot in a fall over a rug at home.

Nora Ammon, 74, of Dresden Ave. received injuries of the arm and shoulder in a fall at home.

William Brown, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Beverly Ln., Wellsville, was treated for a fracture of the right index finger which was caught between a log and stone at the Presbyterian Camp on Beaver Creek.

Kathleen Johnson, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Lisbon St., fell on a bottle, receiving a cut of the left arm.

In a bicycle mishap, Patricia Graebing, 10, daughter of Mrs. Freda Graebing of Glenmoor, suffered abrasions of the foot and a bruised knee.

Daniel Tice, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Tice of Dairy Ln., received cuts of the scalp and neck from glass which fell out of a storm door.

Gets Service Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Danny D. Johnson, D-Tuscarawas, has been appointed to the Ohio Legislative Service Commission to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Sen. Fred Harter, D-Summit, to become a candidate for county commissioner in that county. Johnson, former Tuscarawas County prosecutor, will serve until a new commission is named at the close of the next legislative session. The commission is the fact-finding arm of the General Assembly.

Retired Executive Dies

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—R. Paul Huggins, 68, a vice president of the Gulf Oil Corp. from 1952 until his retirement in 1959, died Tuesday.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from "Worried Aunt," who wrote about her 9-year-old nephew being dressed like a girl, brought back nightmarish memories.

I'm now married and the father of four children. No one will ever know the battle I fought to live a normal life.

My mother was divorced when I was an infant. She kept me in girl's dresses and long curls until I went to school. I remember the teacher visiting at our home and pleading with her to cut my hair. Mother gave me dolls to play with and taught me how to sew.

When I was 11 Mother died, but I was pretty much messed up by that time. I went to live with an aunt and uncle who were well aware of my problem. I must have cost them a small fortune for psychiatric care. For seven years I was in treatment.

I was one of the lucky ones who found the road back to normalcy. But when I think of how close I came to a completely different life I shudder.

There are too few enlightened people who realize that these tragic figures are the victims of a very sick parent, and that the problem of homosexuality is mental, not physical. They need understanding, not ridicule.

Thank you for printing this—if you dare.—SAVED.

Playboy Husband

Dear Ann: My husband thinks an awful lot of your judgment but he doesn't think much of mine.

I work from 8 to 5. His hours are irregular. He often comes home from work at 3 or 4 in the afternoon. I can't slick the house up before I leave in the morning though I do try to tidy it up somewhat.

My husband has fallen into the habit of bringing home a couple of men and a woman or two from the plant every afternoon. I find them there when I come home. They sit around and drink and talk and sometimes help themselves to food.

I've told him I don't mind the men so much but I hate to have strange women in my home when I'm not there.

He says the house is half his and he should be free to invite in anyone he wants. Am I eccentric as he says, or is he inconsiderate?—MOST CONCERNED.

Dear Most: When your husband says the house is half his he is right. This means, of course, that it's half yours as well and you should not be vetoed.

Your objections are perfectly valid. If your husband continues to ignore them, tell him you're going to work half days from now on so you can be at home in the afternoon to receive his guests.

Sympathy For Mother

Dear Ann: I'm an old fogey who is all hot and bothered by the letter signed "In the Middle."

This unhappy mother wrote to ask what to do about her husband who insisted on giving their 15-year-old son $10 a week allowance to spend on hot dogs, soft drinks and foolishness. All of this nonsense is going on when the family is having a tough time paying bills!

This mother deserves a lot of sympathy and many prayers because I'm afraid the young whippersnapper soon will decide the drinks are too soft and $10 a week isn't enough.

Just because this dad had it rough when he was a boy is no excuse to make a hoodlum out of his son. Too bad the kids today will never know the fun of saving for weeks to get 15 cents together to spend at a county fair.—OLD FOGEY.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ohio Soldier Draws Fine, Term For Drug

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Army Pfc. Madison C. Cole, of Delaware, Ohio, has been sentenced to six-months in jail and fined $100 for possessing peyote, an exotic drug made from a cactus plant.

The 22-year-old soldier, stationed at the Carlisle Army Barracks, pleaded guilty to the charge in Dauphin County Court Monday.

He said he received a shipment of the drug from Texas, adding he was unaware that peyote was illegal in Pennsylvania. He was caught with a box full of the drug near the Capitol several months ago.

Mrs. Klumpp Takes Plea To U.S. Tribunal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Edythe Margaret Klumpp, convicted Cincinnati slayer of her lover's wife, has appealed to the United States Supreme Court to spare her from the electric chair.

Hamilton County Common Pleas Court convicted her of first-degree murder for the 1958 slaying of Mrs. Louise Bergen of Cincinnati. The court of appeals for the First District of Ohio and the Ohio Supreme Court upheld the lower court's decision.

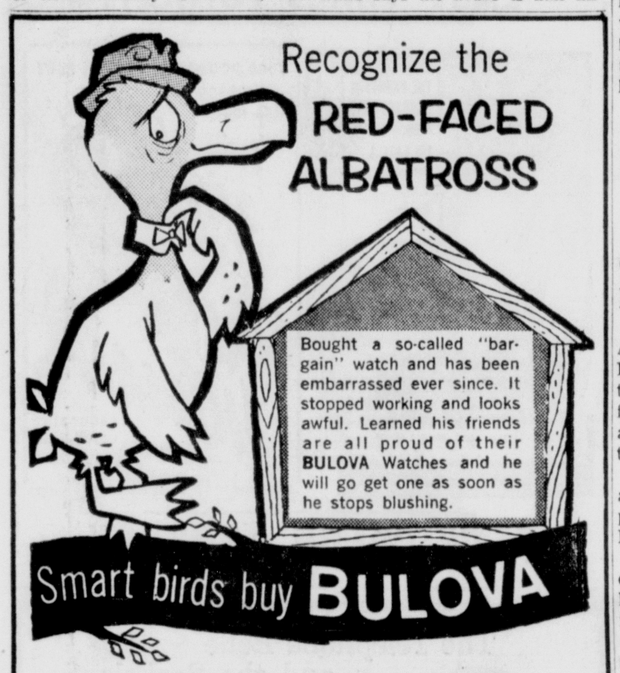

William F. Hopkins, Cincinnati attorney, Monday filed a petition with the U.S. Supreme Court appealing the death sentence on the grounds that her conviction was obtained in violation of her constitutional rights. The petition alleged that the trial judge conducted the trial "in such a manner as to render my federal constitutional rights mere paper rights."

Mrs. Klumpp contended she was denied the right of counsel immediately during questioning by officers and that a confession used against her was obtained in violation of her rights under the 14th Amendment.

The Ohio Supreme Court has held up Mrs. Klumpp's execution pending the appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court. Aides of the latter court said the appeal is subject to action by the entire court, now in recess until Oct. 10.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Dieters Can Be One Size Slimmer By Fall

One very real reward of paring poundage is being able to slip into a size smaller dress or suit of clothes. Do you like the slimmer feeling you are achieving? To enliven your enthusiasm, aim at being a full size slimmer by September 21, when summer is officially over.

By Ida Jean Kain

Picture yourself breezing into a store and buying that smaller size. Or, retrieve a favorite dress or suit which you haven't been able to get into for a long while. Some of you may have a whole wardrobe a size smaller!

The standard number of pounds between dress sizes is 10 to 16 in misses and women's sizes, depending on the size range. In teenagers there is a 12-pound difference and in pre-teens a 10-pound difference from one dress size to the next. The average number of pounds between sizes in men's suits, 15.

Of course the number of pounds to your next size depends on how close you are to the top weight limit on your present size. If you are straining the seams, then you will need to take off the full amount. If you can almost wear your smaller size, pershaps 5 more pounds off will turn the trick for you.

THE SHEER JOY of living expressed in a letter from a former overweight can lift your spirits and keep you slimming down happily. This former overweight took off 40 excess pounds and changed from size 20½ to a size 16. She wrote:

"When I slimmed down one size it was a real treat to be able to wear the dresses I had reluctantly pushed into the back of my closet.

"Now to be able to wear size 16 is a wonderful adventure. Tell your dieters it's hard to remember the rich foods you turned down when you are hearing compliments on how much younger you look. Wonderful too, to get used to looking at a slender you who stands tall, rather than a fattery who slumped to try to minimize her size.

"To be able to run lightly upstairs without huffing and puffing is a joy. But the greatest and most exciting part of reducing is the new sense of well-being that comes with less weight. There is pleasure in every motion after the fat is lifted."

THURSDAY

Breakfast

Chilled orange juice, ½ glass; fried egg, slimming style; toast, 1 thin slice; jam, 1 rounded teaspoon, and coffee, black.

Fry egg in ½ tsp. butter, margarine, or oil in heavy skillet. Cook very slowly, covered.

Teen ager: Glass of skim milk.

Luncheon

Hearty sandwich: rye bread, 2 slices, mustard (no butter); lean ham or bologna, 2 slice, cheese, 1 slice; pickels, and tea or coffee.

Teen Ager: Glass of whole milk.

Pick-up — glass of buttermilk or skim milk.

Dinner

Broiled chicken, ¼ of 2 lb. broiler; potato, medium or corn on cob; butter, ½ pat; choice of: spinach or string beans, liberal serving; crisp celery; honeydew melon with lime wedge, and coffee or tea.

Total Calories — woman 1,045; man 1,045; teen-ager 1,295.

Men may add 200 to 250 calories in any food or drink.

TST Presents New Set For Casual China

Timed for the holiday entertaining season, a new china composition, "The Social Set," is being introduced by the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. in its popular new Taylorton casual china line.

"The Social Se,t" created by John Gilkes, TST director of design and styling, features new shapes in a coffee server, ceramic base brass warmer, salad bowl and salad fork and spoon.

It consists of 46 pieces and, as the name implies, is ideal for entertaining, yet each piece is extremely versatile and can be easily diverted into every-day use.

The patterns will be taken from Taylorton — Autumn Splendor, Rose Sachet, Rhapsody, Silver Wheat and Dianthus. W. L. Smith, III, sales manager, said the retail price base will be $49.95 with slight variance, according to pattern.

As in the entire Taylorton line, all components of "The Social Set" are guaranteed for a year against breakage, and TST's exclusive zircon-hard glaze locks-in colors and protects against scratches and stains, Gilkes said.

Briton Fined On Pub Crawl With Big Crane

WEST HARTLEPOOL, England (AP)—Leonard L. Broadhurst, 33, was fined 45 pounds—$126—Monday for going on a pub crawl at the wheel of a mobile crane weighing 17½ tons.

The crane driver's saloon tour ended when the massive vehicle crashed into a bus waiting room.

Army Considers Plan To Revamp Ground Forces

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is considering a proposal to use only two types of divisions —heavy and medium — with all present foot soldiers riding in some kind of ground or air vehicle.

Lt. Gen. Gordon B. Rogers, in charge of development for the Continental Army Command, said in an address Tuesday that the recommendation has been made to the Army chief of staff, Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, for revamping the ground forces into what would be called "Momar." That means "modern mobile army," which would be attained in the period of 1965-70, Rogers said.

He disclosed first details of the proposal in talking to the convention of the Assn. of the United States.

At today's session, Army speakers hammered hard on the need for more mobility, especially air transportation of men and weapons.

Another speaker, Brig. Gen. Clifton F. von Kann, director of Army aviation, made evident the dissatisfaction of the Army with current limitations on air transport and reconnaissance.

$1,210,510 Paid For Vets' Claims

A total of $1,210,510 has been paid to Beaver County Korean Conflict veterans or survivors, the Compensation Bureau at Harrisburg has announced.

There were 4,977 claims processed, according to the state bureau, and since records show the county had 7,711 Korean conflict veterans, there apparently still are some 2,734 county veterans to be paid, Truman Rodfong, county director of veterans affairs, said.

A breakdown of the payments shows $454,765 paid to 1,618 veterans with Korean service, $646,220 to 3,084 to veterans without Korean service, $44,240 to 96 men still in the service with Korean duty.

A total of $30,880 was paid to 85 men still in service without Korean duty, $25,500 to survivors of 58 killed in Korea, $5,795 to 20 who died after discharge with duty in Korea; $2,680 to 13 who died after discharge without Korean duty, and $430 to one mental incompetent without Korean service.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I perform a good cleaning job on some of my rings?

A. You can do this very nicely with an old toothbrush and soap and water — unless the rings are badly tarnished, in which case try using some bicarbonate of soda. Just dip the damp brush into the bicarb, and scrub the ring; then rinse.

Q. What is a good and effective way to break up a dog fight?

A. Saturate an old rag or towel with ammonia, drape it over a long stick or broom, and dangle this between the combative animals. They'll separate fast!

Q. How can I make a plant fertilizer?

A. A little ammonia added to the water affords a rich fertilizer for the plants, and also aids in preventing bugs.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Conformity Vs. Independent Ideas

Yesterday, while deplroring the deadening effect of conformity of thought and opinion among high school and college youths and adults, I held that certain conformities at home and school in growing children are very desirable. I said that conformities to routines and certain family regulations reduce annoyances and release time and opportunity for doing, thinking and expressing individual opinions in independent ways. I said that the same holds true for school. There, for example, while one group of elementary children may be reading for short periods from the same book, another group may be reading from easier or harder materials more interesting to them.

Garry C. Meyers

AFTER LEARNING in a group certain skills, such as drawing or making a mask, each child may be encouraged to make one to his own liking, different from that by any other child.

Having learned the basic facts in a social science course, the youth may be encouraged to give and defend his opinion different from that accepted by most of the class, even by the textbook or teacher.

Conforming to certain basic family routines and regulations, he may be allowed, even encouraged, to express his own ideas and opinions in the family circle, especially at mealtime.

Right now, with public interest high on national and international affairs, and the election approaching, it's a wonderful time for parents to stimulate free expression of ideas by teen-age children.

It's wonderful, too, if parents often disagree with each other on such matters without the least show of anger, or if a youth feels free to express and defend opinions different from those of his parents.

—:—

WHAT A HERITAGE for children to grow up in a home where any member may express his opinions and beliefs and defend them calmly without fear of being told his ideas and opinions are silly or disrespectful and without anybody getting angry. There is no place like the good home-forum.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from "Worried Aunt," who wrote about her 9-year-old nephew being dressed like a girl, brought back nightmarish memories.

I'm now married and the father of four children. No one will ever know the battle I fought to live a normal life.

My mother was divorced when I was an infant. She kept me in girl's dresses and long curls until I went to school. I remember the teacher visiting at our home and pleading with her to cut my hair. Mother gave me dolls to play with and taught me how to sew.

When I was 11 Mother died, but I was pretty much messed up by that time. I went to live with an aunt and uncle who were well aware of my problem. I must have cost them a small fortune for psychiatric care. For seven years I was in treatment.

I was one of the lucky ones who found the road back to normalcy. But when I think of how close I came to a completely different life I shudder.

There are too few enlightened people who realize that these tragic figures are the victims of a very sick parent, and that the problem of homosexuality is mental, not physical. They need understanding, not ridicule.

Thank you for printing this—if you dare.—SAVED.

Playboy Husband

Dear Ann: My husband thinks an awful lot of your judgment but he doesn't think much of mine.

I work from 8 to 5. His hours are irregular. He often comes home from work at 3 or 4 in the afternoon. I can't slick the house up before I leave in the morning though I do try to tidy it up somewhat.

My husband has fallen into the habit of bringing home a couple of men and a woman or two from the plant every afternoon. I find them there when I come home. They sit around and drink and talk and sometimes help themselves to food.

I've told him I don't mind the men so much but I hate to have strange women in my home when I'm not there.

He says the house is half his and he should be free to invite in anyone he wants. Am I eccentric as he says, or is he inconsiderate?—MOST CONCERNED.

Dear Most: When your husband says the house is half his he is right. This means, of course, that it's half yours as well and you should not be vetoed.

Your objections are perfectly valid. If your husband continues to ignore them, tell him you're going to work half days from now on so you can be at home in the afternoon to receive his guests.

Sympathy For Mother

Dear Ann: I'm an old fogey who is all hot and bothered by the letter signed "In the Middle."

This unhappy mother wrote to ask what to do about her husband who insisted on giving their 15-year-old son $10 a week allowance to spend on hot dogs, soft drinks and foolishness. All of this nonsense is going on when the family is having a tough time paying bills!

This mother deserves a lot of sympathy and many prayers because I'm afraid the young whippersnapper soon will decide the drinks are too soft and $10 a week isn't enough.

Just because this dad had it rough when he was a boy is no excuse to make a hoodlum out of his son. Too bad the kids today will never know the fun of saving for weeks to get 15 cents together to spend at a county fair.—OLD FOGEY.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ohio Soldier Draws Fine, Term For Drug

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Army Pfc. Madison C. Cole, of Delaware, Ohio, has been sentenced to six-months in jail and fined $100 for possessing peyote, an exotic drug made from a cactus plant.

The 22-year-old soldier, stationed at the Carlisle Army Barracks, pleaded guilty to the charge in Dauphin County Court Monday.

He said he received a shipment of the drug from Texas, adding he was unaware that peyote was illegal in Pennsylvania. He was caught with a box full of the drug near the Capitol several months ago.

Mrs. Klumpp Takes Plea To U.S. Tribunal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Edythe Margaret Klumpp, convicted Cincinnati slayer of her lover's wife, has appealed to the United States Supreme Court to spare her from the electric chair.

Hamilton County Common Pleas Court convicted her of first-degree murder for the 1958 slaying of Mrs. Louise Bergen of Cincinnati. The court of appeals for the First District of Ohio and the Ohio Supreme Court upheld the lower court's decision.

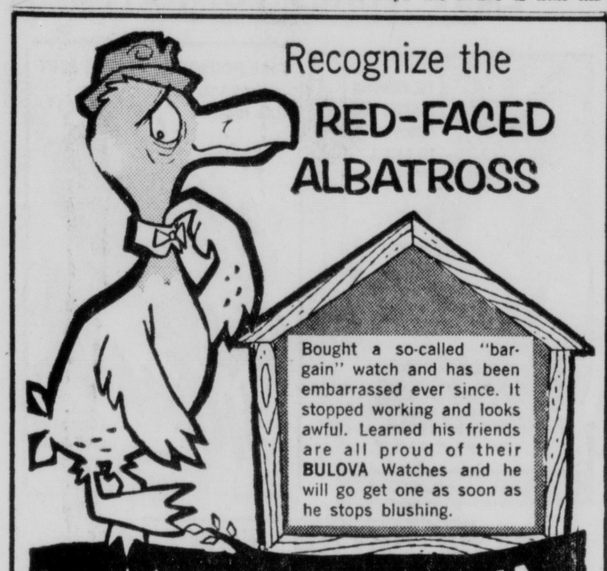

William F. Hopkins, Cincinnati attorney, Monday filed a petition with the U.S. Supreme Court appealing the death sentence on the grounds that her conviction was obtained in violation of her constitutional rights. The petition alleged that the trial judge conducted the trial "in such a manner as to render my federal constitutional rights mere paper rights."

Mrs. Klumpp contended she was denied the right of counsel immediately during questioning by officers and that a confession used against her was obtained in violation of her rights under the 14th Amendment.

The Ohio Supreme Court has held up Mrs. Klumpp's execution pending the appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court. Aides of the latter court said the appeal is subject to action by the entire court, now in recess until Oct. 10.

Big Alaskan Dam Pushed

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Alaska, our biggest state, will have the nation's biggest hydroelectric dam if Sen. Ernest Gruening has his way.

Gruening, peppery, 73-year-old junior senator from the 49th state, is pushing ahead with efforts to win federal support for the project despite an apparent lack of administration fervor.

"I undoubtedly will have a problem selling this," the Democratic senator acknowledges. "I have no illusions it's going to be easy."

The project would create a 10,000 - square - mile lake, rather bathtub size for Alaska's hefty girth of 586,400 square miles, in Rampart Canyon on the Yukon River north of Fairbanks.

The lake would spread behind a billion dollar dam that would provide five million kilowatts an hour, three times as much power generated by Grand Coulee in Washington state, the nation's largest concrete dam.

Gruening says the dam will be needed to supply power for Alaska's future development.

He sees a great era of economic development should vast amounts of low cost power be available to uncork the wealth of mineral deposits now locked in remote sections of interior Alaska.

As things stand now, contends Gruening, a former territorial governor of Alaska, the state's "great rivers run wastefully to the sea."

Furthermore, he says, America is dragging its feet on power development projects, while Russia rushes ahead with similar giant hydroelectric construction in Siberia.

In addition to serving the national wealth, a big dam at Rampart would do wonders for his own state, Gruening contends.

Its power "could be transmitted to all parts of Alaska," the senator says, "and every part of the state would be benefited.

"One of the great obstacles Alaska faces," Gruening adds, "is the high cost of living. Cheap power would be a great counteracting agent to this."

At best, Gruening says, the dam couldn't be in operation for 13 or 14 years, even if funds necessary for the whole job are appropriat- seven years of actual construction alone, he estimates, even after all the necessary advance planning, study and design had been completed.

So far, Gruening has been without any really ardent support for the project. But no concerted opposition has developed to his efforts.

Even so, most residents of the sparsely - settled big new state seem likely to rally behind Gruening's cause, particularly if the prospects brighten for actual approval of a Rampart Dam.

A construction project of the magnitude necessary to build such a dam — not to mention what might come from the actual power resulting from it — would be the biggest single job ever undertaken in Alaska.

Ohio Judge Sentenced For Drunken Driving

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Probate Judge Craig S. Carnes of Guernsey County was found guilty Tuesday on a charge of drunken driving and was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail.

The sentence was imposed by Muskingum County Judge William Geyer. He heard the case last week.

Date for Judge Carnes to start serving the sentence was not set, peding a possible appeal. He was arrested July 24 on U.S. 40 east of Zanesville by a state highway patrolman.

Seven days after that arrest, the judge was arrested north of Cambridge on a similar charge. A hearing on that case is scheduled Aug. 19 in Cambridge Municipal Court.

LEGAL NOTICE

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Auditor of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio, until 12:00 o'clock noon Eastern Daylight Saving Time of September 2, 1960, for the purchase of bonds of the said City in the aggregate sum of $20,000.00 dated the 1st day of August, 1960. Said bonds will be twenty in number and numbered from one to twenty, both inclusive. Each of said bonds will be of the denomination of $1,000.00 and will draw interest at the rate of three and one-half per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of June and December of each year upon presentation and surrender of the interest coupons to be attached to said bonds. Anyone desiring to do so may present a bid or bids for said bonds based on their bearing a different rate of interest than that hereinabove specified, provided that where a fractional interest rate is bid such fraction shall be one quarter of one per cent or multiples thereof. Said bonds will be due and payable as follows:

Nos. 1 to 4 inclusive on the first day of December, 1962,
Nos. 5 to 8 inclusive on the first day of December, 1963,
Nos. 9 to 12 inclusive on the first day of December, 1964,
Nos. 13 to 16 inclusive on the first day of December, 1965,
Nos. 17 to 20 inclusive on the first day of December, 1966.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of payment of maturing notes issued for the cost of purchasing land and construction thereon of off street parking facilities for motor vehicles as described in an ordinance entitled as set forth below and under authority of the laws of Ohio and the Uniform Bond Act and under and in accordance with a certain ordinance entitled "AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL FOR THE PURPOSE OF PAYING NOTES ISSUED IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS TO PAY FOR THE PURCHASE OF AN OFF STREET PARKING LOT", passed on the 18th day of July, 1960.

Said bonds will be sold to the highest bidder for not less than the face value thereof and accrued interest.

All bids must state the number of bonds bid for and the gross amount of bid and accrued interest to date of delivery. All bids to be accompanied with a bond or certified check, payable to the City for $200.00 upon condition that if the bid is accepted the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds as may be issued as above set forth, within thirty days from the time of the award, said bond to be forfeited or said check to be retained by the City if said condition is not fulfilled.

Bids should be sealed and endorsed: "Bids for Parking Lot Bonds". July 27, 1960.
